Moorefield Homemakers "invest in themselves"

The moorefield Homemakers met at the extension office on November 2, at 7:30. Margie H. Wilson was hostess to 10 members and a guest, Helen Pumphrey.

The devotionall was given by Lois Hamm. The thought for the month was - In this thing-centered, materialistic world of ours, we need to ask ourselves daily, hourly even, "Where am I investing myself? In things, or in people? What really counts? Trinkets or treasures?" Scripture was from Matthew, 6: 19-21. "For where your treasure is , there will your heart be also."

Nettie Barnes, Vice Pres. presided. We answered the roll by naming a favorite food for Thanksgiving.

Headquarters Hmks. make Christmas holiday plans

The Headquarters Homemakers met Tuesday, Nov. 7 at The Carlisle Depot.

President Betsy Cleaver presided at the meetings.

Minutes of the October meeting were read and approved.

Roll call was answered by 13 members and Extension Agent Melba Burch. The treasurer's report was given by Hazel Moore. Plans were finalized for the December meeting to be held at Paris on Dec. 5.

There will be an exchange of Christmas gifts. A delicious lunch was served by the hostesses, Ruth Hollar, Betsy Cleaver and Edith Anderson.

Lesson was given by Lois Ockerman telling the "Healing Power of Good Humor." Hazel Moore showed members how to make a pillow called the Stain Glass on Cathedral Glass pattern. Melba gave members information on Johnny Appleseed and the apples. She shared several recipes on ways to prepare apples.

Elizabeth Ellington gave a mini-lesson on, "Environment - your choice, your voice. Garbage through the ages." Each one read about what people did with trash form 50,000 years ago, until now.

Nettie gave each leaflits on: "A Merry Heart: The Healing Power of Good Humor," also "Quotes from Splashes of Joy in the Cesspools of Life." These were both very interesting and go for re-reading.

Then we made Christmas trees from coat hangers, tape, lights and tinsel. There was quite a variety of colors in the finished product.

Margie served delicious refreshments.

The December meeting will be with Nancy Judge with Wanda Mather, co-hostess. The program will be given by Frances House and Margie H. Wilson.

Jeffrey Tyler Hamilton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Hamilton spent the past week with his granparents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert McFarland while his parents accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Kevin Shelton and Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Sadler on a vacation cruise to Playa del Carmen, Cozumel and other points of interest.

perception of the communities need. Sometimes I have tunnel vision."

The court's other guest speaker, Mike Cooper of Rumpke, Mt. Sterling, asked magistrates to renew its one year contract for his operation to continue to take trash form the recycling center to Mt. Sterling. As stated last year, the increase the first year was eight percent with an increase of six percent and next year, an

The six percent hauling increase is necessary due to state stipulations on its landfill facility - costing $350,000 per acre. The 42 cubic yard closed top will go from $392.36 to $415.90. The 40 cubic yard open top goes from $373.68 to $396.10. "It's not going to get any cheaper. I don't know where the lid's gonna close on this thing," Cooper informed magistrates.

Cooper said the stated increases of 8, 6, and 5 percent in increments may be easier to take than coming to Fiscal Court and stating the company needs a 20 percent hike all at once. He also stated it may be necessary to increase convenience center rates to help compensate the county's expense. Magistrate Stacy agreed to the one year renewal and was seconded by Magistrate Avery Thornsburg with all in favor. Stacy commented that a rate increase at the center may be discussed but didn't elaborate further.
