ARIES (March 21 to April 19) The beginning of the week is hectic for you and you find it difficult to get back into the groove. However, by week's end, you are productive and accomplish much. Take time to do some holiday shopping.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Digging your heels in early in the week isn't going to get you the result you want. Instead, try to be diplomatic and charming. People respond better to you when you're not being so irrationally stubborn.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) You find yourself torn between two warring sides of your personality now. Part of you wants to take an aggressive, take-no-prisoners approach on the job and the other part wants to be more laid back. You resolve this by week's end.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) You're showing a bit of typical chubbiness now since one holiday's over and another is yet to begin. Pick up your mood with some festive holiday shopping. You'll find just the right gifts for that special someone.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) Granted, you had a roaring good time over the holiday, but it's time to get back to business. Postpone further merriment until later in the month when the situation warrants. For now, stick to what must be done.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) You spend a good part of the week picking up after your holiday company. A perfectionist, this will take you longer than you'd like but it all gets done to your ultimate satisfaction. A child needs advice this weekend.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) Concentration isn't your strong suit as you head back to work after the holiday. You're humming those special holiday songs in your head and having visions of sugarplums. This doesn't go over well with coworkers.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) You are tempted early in the week to make a snappy remark to someone who disappoints you. However, try to be compassionate. This person is, after all, only human and you've made mistakes yourself. Relax at home this weekend.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) You vacillate between getting much done and doing nothing throughout the week now. This is because your energy only services you in spurts and isn't consistent. Perhaps you overate over the holiday and need to correct this.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) Persistence will get you what you want early in the week at work. However, a co-worker isn't apt to follow your lead and wants to take a different tack. Listen to what's being said. Perhaps you can learn something.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) By all means, go after what it is you want now. You'll be unstoppable and make many career gains by week's end. Get-togethers with friends from out of town highlight your weekend.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) You're in the doldrums in the early part of the week but this soon dissipates. Your mate is doing everything possible to be considerate of your mood, so make sure you express your appreciation.

Dear Diane

by Diane Van Arsdale

DEAR DIANE:

I am a 26-year-old woman and have been married to my second husband for almost a year now.

Recently, I've gone back to night school to get my high school diploma since I had to drop out for personal reasons. Lately, my mother and brother have been insulting me and putting me down. They tell me and my husband that I will never graduate because I'm too stupid and because I'm in a special math class.

I love my family dearly, don't get me wrong. But how can I tell them without causing any undue harm that they're both wrong? I am going to graduate, no matter what they say.

MIFFED

DEAR MIFFED:

First let me say, congratulations! You've taken a wonderful step in going for that high school diploma and I wish you all the best. Unlike your mother and brother, I know you'll succeed. You've shown a great deal of initiative toward that end already.

As for those two detractors, tell them off in no uncertain terms. You're so worried about causing them "undue harm," but I don't see the same sort of consideration being shown to you. Let them know that you don't care to hear their opinions and you don't subscribe to them in any case. Tell them they're wasting their breath and being cruel at the same time if they still continue, remove yourself from their presence, when they start in. Eventually, they'll realize they can't get to you and they'll stop being so incredibly mean.
