says letter writer

Dear Editor:
I am sure you saw an election day. This ticket has some of the best people the Democratic Party has ever put forth for Kentucky.

body, regardless of the size of their business. We will provide this service. We realized this was a way to benefit all merchants and a valuable service to the community," Farn said.

Local input and influence

Local input and influence can make a difference. Just last week Flemingburg, Ky., was able to get Topo Suit U.S.A. to relocate their jobs at about $8.75 per hour. This took a good business, and a good effort out of the work force. There was great deal of community support.

Vote straight ticket on election day!
