ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Place the accent on cooperation and diplomacy this week. Little things are likely now to interfere with your way. However, these aren't exactly insurmountable obstacles, so be resourceful.
TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Your efforts to reach between the lines could lead you to jump to the wrong conclusions. These faulty assumptions can cause head feelings among co-workers, so try to be more analytical. It takes extra effort to be productive.
GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) A close partner to advise this week and easily offended. Be careful of ill-considered remarks that could give offense. By week's end, this person opens up and tells you what's wrong. Social life takes a back seat this weekend.
CANCER (June 21 to July 22) Not much will come of big talk you hear in business this week, so try not to give this too much credence. Instead, take what you hear with a grain of salt. A family reunion is out of order this weekend and should be postponed.
LEO (July 23 to August 22) Double-check notes in connection with certain travel plans. Slight slips could cost you between you and a close relative. This person is being unreasonable, so try to ignore it. Other situations get the way of reaching agreement this weekend.
VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) Extra expenses could arise in connection with a loved one this week. Instead of being angry at the person, do your best to be generous among co-workers, so try to be more analytical. It takes extra effort to be productive.
LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) Keep the level of communication open with those close to you. You have a tendency to clam up at times and this perplexes those who care about you. Now's not the time to give them any offense. If you're not sure, you're ready for a long rest to recharge your energy.
SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) Directions and interpretations are likely to interfere with your concentration at work this week. As a result, your accomplishments could fall short of your good intentions. If work's end, you are ready for a long rest to recharge your energy.
SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) You intend to act full in speech this week. A loved one or friend could easily take offense at something you say in a job or off-hand manner. A social invitation for the weekend could prove to be more costly than you'd like.
CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) Disrespect could mean dropping by could upset your domestic schedule early in the week. In business, a moodly higher-up or associate has to be handled with kid gloves if you are to accomplish all you set out to do this week.
AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) Don't put too much stock in what a person who tends to exaggerate has to say this week. You've never listened to this person before. Now's not the time to say it's not a good week for getting your ideas across to other.
PISCES (February 19 to March 20) Judgment could be off this week regarding spending, an unusual occurrence for you. You're making a certain personal matter more complicated than it needs to be. Stop being such a gloom and doomer!

Dear Diane

DEAR DIANE: My husband and I have been married for eight years. During that time, I have been unable to get pregnant. We went from doctor to doctor and took every test imaginable — and then some!
The fertility specialist who's been putting on intravenous antibiotics, but all that did was make both of us deathly ill to our stomachs. Now, we're trying in-vitro fertilization. I don't know how much you know about this procedure, but it's somewhat painful and extremely expensive. For what we've spent just this past year alone, we could have adopted three or more children!
