Church Corner

The following is an article written by a local church official, and does not necessarily reflect the views or opinions held by The Carlisle Mercury or Park Communications, Inc.

Prayer

There are some people that believe when a person becomes a Christian that he gives up every joy that life brings and is very sad and completely devoid of any privilege. But that is not true at all. We have the privilege of fellowship with some of the finest people on earth. "God's people." We have the privilege of going to the church of our choice, and to hear a gospel message that will help us live a better life. We have the privilege of giving our tithes to build God's kingdom. We have our blessed hope in the greatest book ever written, the Holy Bible. There is a great joy in a true Christian's heart that knows the love of our Lord Jesus Christ. And it is a true joy serving in the only army that will be ultimately victorious. And it is a privilege to have at our own personal convenience the power to take all of our joys and concerns to Christ in prayer. Prayer to a Christian is the greatest working tool we have, there is not anything that can't be accomplished through prayer. I would like to share a small article that I found in the book, "Cure of all Ills," written by Mary Stewart Relfe.

"Everything By Prayer"
Phil. 4:6

Through prayer there is no problem that can't be solved, no sickness that can't be healed, no burden that can't be lifted, no storm that can't be erased, no poverty cycle that can't be broken, no sinner that can't be saved, no perishing that can't be rescued, no fallen that can't be lifted, no hurt that can't be removed, no broken relationship that can't be shaken, no limitation that can't be assaulted, no mourning that can't be comforted, no ashes that can't become beauty, no heaviness that can't be covered with the garment of praise, no thirst that can't be quenched, no hunger that can't be filled, no dry ground that can't be flooded, no desert that can't blossom, no congregation that can't be revived, no preacher that can't be filled, no church board that can't become "one," no community that can't be Christianized, and no nation that can't be transfigured!

No wonder why we as Christians have so much joy and peace in our hearts knowing that nothing can happen to us that can't be answered by Prayer. Yes we have all the joy, hope, fun, salvation, love we will ever need in prayer to Jesus Christ. Prayer can and will change all things if we will let it.

Moorefield Homemakers meet

The Moorefield Homemakers met at the home of Lucille Clark for the first meeting of the year on September 7 at 7:30 p.m. with twelve members present.

The Devotional was given by Wanda Mathes, concerning the Autum Color Show, which we will enjoy soon, closing with an Amish Prayer.

The President, Alma Curtis presided. The roll call was answered by telling something we enjoyed most this summer. Laura Jean Clark read the minutes which were approved.

Each one filled in the calanders for the year for hostesses, devotional leaders, project lesson leaders and other activities.

The area meeting will be October 9, at 9 a.m. at Richmond, Keen Johnson Building.

The lesson on Dried Flowers and Herbs was given by Marjorie R. Wilson, an interesting and informative lesson.

As an "added attraction," numerous epamles of oils and vinegars mixed with herbs was shown by Elizabeth Ellington and Margie H. Wilson.

Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess and co-hostess, Janice Denton.

Cinderella Sisters exchanged gifts and revealed our names. New names were drawn for this year.

The October meeting will be with Marjorie R. Wilson. Don't forget to bring something for the auction. The lesson will be applique design by Wanda Mathes.

Walker celebrates 9th birthday

A birthday party was held for Kevin Allen Walker, who celebrated his 9th birthday, was held at Hardee's in Mt. Sterling with a "Happy Birthday Kevin" banner, and carrying out with all decorations of bright colors with matching Happy Birthday accessories and a large birthday cake. Matching balloons and fun food meal with a toy was served to each guest. A clown was there and they all joined in singing "Happy Birthday Kevin."

Those attending were Amie Sams, Amanda Sams of Carlisle, Morgan and Mike Goodpastor of Sharpsburg and also his brother, Kris Walker, father, Kevin Walker, and grandfather, Jimmy Walker all of Carlisle and a host of friends.

Everyone enjoyed themselves and had a good time and lots of fun. Mrs. James Wells hosted the party.
