

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) A minor argument erupts early in the week concerning something which happens at home. Guard your words. Something said in anger won't be easily forgotten.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) You're tempted this week to try something new on the work front. However, it's not a good time to take such chances. Someone close to you is being unusually secretive about something.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) Your finances aren't in the best shape right now, so it's not a good idea to go on a shopping spree this week. You'd also be better off putting in extra hours over the weekend in order to catch up with unfinished work.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) You're not at your attentive best this week as your mind has a tendency to wander. If you daydream too much, you could find yourself putting in extra hours over the weekend in order to catch up with unfinished work.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) Don't pay too much attention to those well-meaning friends who are best on giving you advice, especially since what you hear is conflicting. A big wig is having some difficulty making a decision and you can help making a decision.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) You could fall for someone's sob story and be tempted to lend that person money. This isn't a wise idea and you should avoid an infatuation. It's good since you need more time to consider all the ramifications. A rumor monger is spreading nasty tales, but ignore it.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) You're put off this week by someone's expressive behavior, especially since that person is talking in a rather sticky situation between two friends. However, it's best to mind your own business since they will make up and you'll wind up the odd man out.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) You know that all good things come to those who wait, so just be patient. Something very good is about to come your way concerning your career or love life. Watch your home appliances since one of them is coming to the end of its days.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) You vacillate this week and have a hard time making up your mind about things. Big wigs are compromised with such waffling. It would be, let a friend or co-worker take the lead now and stick to working behind the scenes.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) A dollar can be expected early in the week as a financial deal may be being considered. This is good since you need more time to consider all the ramifications. A rumor monger is spreading nasty tales, but ignore it.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) You could find your way in a rather sticky situation between two friends. However, it's best to mind your own business since they will make up and you'll wind up the odd man out.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) Your incoherent behavior is drawing some negative attention from friends, family and co-workers. This isn't like you. Take some time this week to sit down and get the best of what's bothering you.

VISION TEASER

DEAR DIANE: I met this really great guy in February, 1995. We have been falling ever since and we get along great. I enjoy his company and love his personality. Recently, we have decided to "go" friends because he plans to return to his own country (Brazil) and we do not want to hurt each other. I have been dating other men (they do not compare which I don't think he does). However, he plans to marry a virgin. I know just how hard it is to be divorced American mother of two children and that doesn't fit the description. He likes children, but he has not met mine yet. We are really great together and I am falling in love with this guy.

DEAR CONFUSED: Go ahead and tell him, although I doubt it will come to anything in a culture such as his, there is tremendous pressure to fulfill certain obligations, one of which is to marry the proper woman and have children if the proper culture. I mean a virgin. This is not his culture, but he has not two cultures are so complete. If different. Even if this was true, he'd still love you and want to make a life with you, it would be a real challenge. He would try to understand you, since in his own country, he's the best, so to speak, at marriage. As an American woman, born and bred, you'd find it easy to marry. I'm sure, you'd both wind up being happy. But I know it's not a fun time to dip you into the "blue" you "discovered" if he's being "understood". This, too, is a part of his culture. Forget him. Go for an American.
