Four NC students compete in Talk Meet

The 4-H Bluegrass Area Talk Meet was held on Tuesday, March 26. Competing in the meet were four students from Nicholas County, Ashley McFarland, 9, Amber McCord, 10, Ashley Hamilton, 11, and Alex Wilson, 12.

The students competed against 50 students in their age groups from eight other counties in the Bluegrass Area keep the earth clean and learn how to keep it green by planting trees.

Cub leader, Keeley Boone, says she is very proud of what the Cubs have accomplished and hopes that other parents will see the benefits of these types of activities. "It gives the boys something to look forward too each week," said Boone.

The Cubs have plans for a Camp Out at the Kentucky Horse Park, a trip to Kid's Place and a fishing trip with dad.

The Tiger Cubs will hold their graduation in May and at that time they will go on to become Bob Cats.

HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION

Any property owner who owns and lives in their home and will turn 65 years old this year, can qualify for the exemption. You must come to the PVA office and sign a form verifying your age. You can sign the form now even if your birthday is later in the year.

Any property owner who owns and lives in their home and is drawing TOTAL DISABILITY thru Social Security, Federal Government or Railroad Retirement are also eligible for the exemption.

FARMS -- AGRICULTURAL VALUE

Any farm that is actively engaged in a farming operation (tobacco, cattle, hay, etc.) can qualify for the Agricultural value. This might result in a lower taxable value on the farm. Houses on a farm must be valued at fair cash value. You can stop by the Property Valuation Office to check to see if your farm qualifies for the ag. value.

Nicholas County Democratic Executive Committee announced County precinct conventions to be held April 13, 1996 at 10:00 a.m. local time at each precinct, regular polling location.

All Democrats who reside in Nicholas County and are registered to vote in the precinct by March 21, 1996, are encouraged to attend and participate in the election of precinct committee members.

There will be a temporary precinct chairman who will be stationed at each polling location and will have guidelines established for election of precinct officers.

Polling locations will be open at 9:30 a.m.

Paid for by the Nicholas County Democratic Executive Committee

TANGIBLE - INTANGIBLE PERSONAL PROPERTY

All persons owning Intangible and/or Tangible personal property are encouraged to file their returns with the PVA office as soon as possible. The absolute deadline is May 15, 1996, but we encourage you to file sooner if possible.
