Owingsville, KY 674-2453

102 Acres—Property fronts on Hwy. 11 between Shaysburg and Bethel. Land is improved with 2-6 bent tobacco barns, workshop and good fencing. An exceptionally nice mobile home goes with the farm. Farm is mostly in grass with a few acres of tobacco ground. Property has 7000 (+) pounds of tobacco.

105 Acres—Excellent stock farm located approximately 2 miles from Owingsville on Hwy 36. Farm is improved with a good 6 bent barn, is under mostly new fencing and has several holding pens arranged for easy livestock handling.

56 Acres—Local SOLD 36 West on Locust Rd. Farm has good 7 bent tobacco barn and is watered by a pumped pond. Owner/Broker.

50 Acres—Gentleman's Farm. This property has approximately 1200 feet road frontage on Hwy 36 West. Beautiful, gently rolling pastureland has tremendous potential for hay, horse, or cattle operation. Level home sites also abound for development opportunities. Owner/Broker.

180 Acres—Flying Co. farm, Cattlemen's Dream! Located on Hwy 111 approximately 1 mile west of Hillsboro, KY. Farm is mostly cleared land and is watered by several ponds, stream and public water. Property is improved with 2 bedroom home, 3 barns, outbuildings and is under good fencing. Natural gas well located on the property would be ideal to heat tobacco plant greenhouses.

5 Acres—Highway 36 West. City water available. Owners financing. Call for details.

United Methodist Men to meet in Carlisle

Dr. E. Ray Throckmorton, the Executive Director of the United Methodist Home at Versailles, will speak at the April 22, 1996 meeting of the Mayville District United Methodist Men. This meeting will be held at the Carlisle United Methodist Church following the evening meal at 6:30 p.m.

Dr. Throckmorton, a native of Mason County, graduated from Meigs' High School. He earned his bachelor's degree at Ashby College and his Master of Divinity degree from Lexington Theological Seminary. A Doctor of Degree was bestowed by Union University. He also did graduate work at Scripps in Nashville andandler School of Theology in Atlanta.

Dr. Throckmorton has served many churches in the Kentucky Conference. He was instrumental in establishing Trinity Hills United Methodist Church in Lexington. He has served as District Superintendent in the Mayville, Harbottleville, and Lexington districts. In 1994, he was appointed Executive Director of The Methodist Men, Come and join in this worth-while cause at the Carlisle United Methodist Church April 22, 1996.

Dr. Ray is married to the former Donna Appleman of Mason County and they are the parents of three children. Dr. Ray will bring the most up-to-date news of the Home. The Home is the yearly meeting of the Mayville District United Methodist Men. Come and join in this worth-while cause at the Carlisle United Methodist Church April 22, 1996.

Nine students participate in FHA meeting

Nine students from Nicholas County High School will be participating in the Future Homemakers of America/HERO State meeting, this week in Louisville. They will return on Thursday.

The students are: Kristen Warner, Jessica Campbell, Kim Truesell, Martha Yarell, Tim Layne, Megan Metcalfe, Kathleen, Jeff Market, and Shelly Pina.

These students will participate in an FHA/HERO meeting being held at the Galt-House in Louisville. They left Carlisle on Tuesday and will return to the school on Thursday.

ATTENTION TURKEY HUNTERS

THE GREAT HUNTER is interested in publishing photos of your wild turkey kills. If you have "tagged" one, and wish to have the news published, stop by the Mercury office at 234-N Locust Street any time between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. Monday through Friday and we will take the photo for you. Or you can call us at 289-2464 to schedule a time that is best for you.
