Survey set to hit 1,000 homes in Nicholas County

Attention All Nicholas County Residents: There is going to be a survey coming to 1000 Nicholas County Homes in August. This is a survey on your thoughts on Nicholas County's health care and human services. Please answer the survey and mail it back. The survey is confidential. It is part of an important project which is the funded by a Family Preservation and Support Services Title IV - B grant. Its purpose is to help Nicholas County Human Needs Committee to better understand the health care and human service needs of its service area. The survey was developed by the Nicholas County Human Needs Committee in conjunction with the UK Center for Rural Health. This committee is a partnership of local citizens, health, and social service representatives who are interested in providing quality local health and social services. The University of Kentucky Center for Rural Health is helping the committee with this project.

Please fill out and return the survey so your views on health and social services in Nicholas County will be counted. You can make a difference. If you have any problems with the survey please contact the Health Department (289-2188), Family Resource/Youth Servi- Center (289-3702), Ditch (289- .3),Ag Extension Office (289-2312, Nicholas County Hospital (289-7181), Comprehensive Care (289-7126) or call 289-4347 or 2849-7453 these are the numbers of Lynn William's community Encourage who will be gathering the information from the surveys. Again these surveys are confidential.

Neal's 1915 Model T Ford

Paul Miller owned a beautiful 1915 Model T Ford. The man had it on his show floor up until Eugene Neal decided he would like to have it about 33 years ago.

Neal didn't say how much he gave for the car, we can only imagine.

Also standing in Neal's store is a 1905 buggy. He said his cousin bought it new in 1905. The buggy has rubber wheels on it, Neal said when you had rubber on your tires you were considered wealthy.

Neal also said when the buggy would go by, people looked at it like you would look at a fine car today.

Laura's Life

OPINION BY LAURA FRYMAN

To be dedicated to children is a wonderful thing but not a whole lot of people are.

Billy Mack Gaunce is a pillar of the community in so many ways .To appreciate kids the way this man does is unbelievable. Not having any kids , one would think he would not care as much as he does.

A Native of Nicholas county Mr. Gaunce has given his time and money for the children of the county. He is involved in the Little League Program and also in many other aspects dealing with children.

In my opinion people could learn many good things from this remarkable individual.
