Coach Kenney celebrates 200th win at recent ceremony

By Laura Fryman
Mrs. Barbara Kenney is one of the people in Nicholas County that we are proud of. Kenney celebrated her two hundredth win Dec. 12 at Nicholas County High School Gym. She was presented the winning ball from Vice Principle Ron Baker.
"It's a great feeling and Amy Hartford really came through for the team when they needed her. I am so pleased that I was able to stay around long enough to see this happen."
Coach Barbara Kenney

I talked to Kenney after the game to ask how it felt to have so many wins. "It's a great feeling and Amy Hartford really came through for the team when they really needed her. I am so pleased that I was able to stay around long enough to see this happen."
Kenney said she was looking through the old stats for the year of 1973 and the team only had four wins in two seasons. I sure never thought that looking at these stats the day would ever come that I would have hundred wins.
I am very proud of the girls they have had and they have given me a lot of time for the team.
The citizens of Carlisle seem to stand behind Mrs. Kenney very strongly. Cartmill Letter was one of the first to get up and congratulate Kenney on her fine outstanding triumph.

Carlisle Jocks knows how to celebrate Christmas!

Four kindergarten classes from Nicholas County Elementary School entertained Jockey International Carlisle employees with several Christmas songs in the cafeteria Monday morning. The employees enjoyed being together as much as the kids, as the faces show. Santa was on hand, making the event extra special.

The Jockey Vice-President of Jockey created the "Santa's Workshop Theme" with Thomas Carter as Santa, Martha Salvage as the Elf and Rocky Burns as reindeer. Everyone had fun!

Kindergarten students from Mrs. Baird's, Mrs. Story's, Mrs. Vice's and Mrs. Gabriel's classes sang a few Christmas songs to the delight of Jockey employees Monday. Santa was also on hand to visit.

Even the movie got into the act, see lower left lying in bed, in the "Twas the Night Before Christmas" decoration theme created by Jockey employees Donna Hughes, Margie Loggett, Jenise Dalby, Libby Earlywine and Stacie Hill, seated in rocking chair with "baby".

Todd Byrd, a kindergarten student visiting Jockey Monday, was one of several youngsters to visit Santa Shirley Fryman.

LIFELINE®

LIFELINE®
Mom can live alone, in her own home.

She's just where she wants to be. But she's on her own, and I'm simply not able to look after her as often as I should.

Last year when she fell and couldn't get immediate help, we both decided that she should join Lifeline. Now all she has to do is press the small button that she wears as a pendant or a watch, and she's connected right away to the trained Lifeline staff at the response center. If she needs help, Lifeline will send someone around that she knows and trusts. And I know that Lifeline will stay in contact until they're sure she's all right.

That's a great comfort to me and her. If you have a loved one who needs the peace of mind, independence, early emergency response, and reassurance that Lifeline gives, call Kay Wickman or Jack Shepherd at (800) 289-7181, Monday-Friday, 8 a.m.-3 p.m. and they'll be happy to answer your questions and get a Lifeline representative in touch with you. Find out how easy and affordable it is to join.
