A brief history of the Deposit Bank of Carlisle, from the beginning to present

By Dan Bishop
Of The Carmel Mercury Staff
CARMEL — The Deposit Bank of Carlisle, at the corner of Main and Locust Streets, was founded in 1850.

During the war years (1940 and early 1950's) there was much bond activity in various U.S. Bonds bearing from 7 1/2 to one fourth interest.

Unanimously, the Board approved to take over the Moorefield Deposit Bank on May 31, 1956.
