Ball on found in Morgan Co. by hunter

On Wednesday, April 24, students enrolled in the Head Start Pre-K program at the Community Action Center, launched 59 balloons in honor of Young Child Week with hopes that anyone finding the balloons might respond.

On Thursday, May 2, they received the response they had been hoping for. The letter, dated April 20, was written to them by 27 year old Kathy Keaton of Martha, Ky. which is in Lawrence County. Kathy's husband, Doug, found the balloon the morning of April 30 while turkey hunting in Morgan County. Kathy stated in her letter that the balloon was found on top of a hill. The balloon belonged to five year old Laezy, the 1st student in Kathy Howard's class.

This was the first response the school had received from their balloon launch.

Moorefield Homemakers

The Moorefield Homemakers met at the home of Laura Clark, May 2, at 7:00 P.M.

The Devotional was given by Mayjore R. Wilson. The thought for the month was "One of the things that comes with age is wisdom. Are you using your wisdom to help yourself and others?" Scripture was Psalm 90:10. Shared poems about "Mother's" which was very appropriate as we were nearing Mothers Day, closing with prayer.

Isn't he the cutest thing you've ever seen? On May 10th, he'll be eighteen! Happy 18th Birthday Love, Mommy, Dave, Randall & Eric
