Pastor's Column from the Rev. James Doughton

We live in a day when pressure and stress of life seem to cause us to close in on us. As a Christian, we have someone to help us. We can turn to Jesus who can lift us up above our circumstances that makes life not only bearable but enjoyable. There was a poem entitled "Higher and Higher" written by Ruth Chapman, a saint in one of my churches that I believe will bring inspiration and strength to you in your journey of life.

Higher and Higher
 Oh what peace and consolation, Amid the trials and storms of life, Up to know one who can lift us above all worldly strife. Oh what wisdom, joy and comfort, In the blood of Christ we find, As we rise higher and higher, Leaving sinful weights behind. When I see the storm approaching, When the clouds around me fold, Let me rise a little higher, With a courage sure and bold.

And mount up with wings, as eagles, When I wait upon the Lord, I shall run and not be weary, If I trust His holy Word. Are you weary, are you fainting? Lay on Jesus every care, There's a place of sweet renewing, If you'll only meet Him there. You can rise higher and higher, You can shout the victory, Though the tempter howls beneath you, You can mount up safe and free. Let the angels witness victory, Let all earth praise Him below, For the power of His salvation, For the love He hath bestowed, His truth is a shield and buckler, His feathers shall cover thee, His angels will bear thee higher, Until you enter His glory. Let me rise a little higher, Let me soar above the storm, Let me trust in Him completely While the storms of life assail. Let me rise a little higher, Where His Spirit can prevail, Rev. James Doughton, Carlisle/Delisted Methodist Church

Nancy Sandifer marks 100th birthday with a celebration at JMHC

Nancy Sandifer, a resident at Johnson Mathers Health Care, celebrated her 100th birthday at the center on Thursday, May 2. She was surrounded by her family, her friends, and much of the staff at JMHC.
 "Nan" as she likes to be called, was born in 1896 in Robertson County. She is the mother of two sons, Herbert and Denny Sandifer. "Nan" was the middle child in a family of 10 and attributes her century long life to the several things, smile a lot, have a good attitude, be honest, love everyone, say lots of prayers, work hard, respect your country, and do the Lord's work.
 "Nan" did not see a doctor until she was 65. She has never had a cold or even been sick. One of "Nan's" favorite things is quoting Bible verses and she loves gospel music.
 In honor of her 100 year celebration, she received a card from the President of the United States.
 Also marking a birthday on May 2 at JMHC, was 83 year old Etta Lyons. Mrs. Lyons was born in Bath County. She is the mother of seven sons and four daughters. She has 19 grandchildren and 30 great-grandchildren.
