NCHS senior will remember band honor
By Leigh Stone
Managing Editor
They will remember the cold weather, and the months of practice-out about half the time. They will remember the anticipation. They awarded fourth place winners and we got more trophies. Second place was Memorial from Erlanger and everybody started getting loud because we're relative winners. In the next 10 to 15 minutes we were just thinking, I did my salute and went with Mr. Hale to get the trophy.

Illegal deer activity reported
By Leigh Stone
Managing Editor
Illegal deer activity in Nicholas County started early in the fall. About 16 bands had been reported in the area. As a bandmaster, I've seen deer in the woods and I've seen them on the road. It's a problem, and the closer it is to winter, the more illegal deer activity there is.

The band was in Lexington the same day as President Bill Clinton. The band stood in the old five hours in uniforms. They played at 12:30 and one song at 3:45 before the President appeared. We could see the president for days. 'Twasday was the day after the extension. It was my last competition, so I kind of knew. But now I can focus on other things. I plan on going to college. I don't know if I'll be in band then or not.

Attorney says others could file suit

By Leigh Stone
Managing Editor
The attorney representing three former Nicholas County teachers who filed a civil case against the Nicholas County School Board concerning a lawsuit filed by a former male teacher may seek a further appeal.

Five years after being fired the suit. Another school was the complaint by 1988 and final one by 1991. One teacher made a complaint in 1992 and Judge Sara Cochran, who would have filed the complaint, stated that statutes of limitations are designed to assure that decisions are accurate and to remove uncertainty about litigation that claims brought in a timely manner, he stated.
