Pastor's Pen

Acts 26:28-29

Then Agrippa said to Paul, "Do you think that in such a short time you can persuade me to be a Christian?" Paul replied, "Short time or long-I pray God that not only you but all who are listening to me today may become what I am, except these chains."

Paul is an amazing figure in Biblical history. At one point in time, he emulated almost everything that Jesus spoke against during our Lord's ministry on earth. Paul--or Saul, as he was called before he converted --was a man of authority in his faith community. He was a Pharisee, zealous about the persecution of Christians. He stood by and watched while martyrs like Stephen were stoned to death, imprisoned or tortured. He even participated in these acts, according to the writer of Acts. All this because Paul had been convinced that the followers of Jesus would completely ruin his way of life, that they were a threat that must be obliterated. Saul was an unlikely candidate for mission work.

After Acts 9, however, Saul's story changes. He becomes Paul, one of the most ardent speakers about Christianity. He stood witnessing before his own people, complete strangers, and the most powerful rulers living at that time. As he speaks to King Agrippa, he uses this opportunity to defend his actions and explain the good news about the resurrection. Even in chains, Paul speaks to the king and will eventually speak to the Emperor Caesar and bring Christianity to Rome.

So what happened to Saul that changed him so? What motivated him to risk his life for the Gospel he used to fight? God, for some reason, God decided to use Saul. Saul had set his missionbased on his convictions against Christians. He was traveling toward Damascus, ready to put a number of Christians in prison. On the way to Damascus, Jesus appeared to him in a vision of bright light and filled him with the Holy Spirit. The man who had been breathing murderous threats against the followers of Christ now knew firsthand the power of the grace of Jesus.

The best part of the story about Paul is that he did nothing to deserve the grace he received. He had worked against Jesus all his life, and here he was receiving a vision that would change his life--as well as the lives of an incredible number of people. Paul's conversion, his call to ministry, was completely undeserved. The trials he endured as a Christian could have been the moments that stifled his witnessing. But Paul's endurance, his conversion, his witness shows us how God works. Even when we don't deserve it, God pours out grace. Even when we are afraid and on trial, God gives us the words to respond to the myriad of challenges before us.

God was on Paul's side, willing to reach out to him when Paul was violently opposing Jesus. God was on PAul's side, working to convert his friends and family. God was on Paul's side, using Paul to witness even up to the end of his life. Though Paul didn't deserve it , God poured out a transforming grace to a man who had done everything he could to oppose God's son Jesus. God, miraculously, was on Paul's side in spite of it all. At the same time, God was on the s..e of the other Pharisees and Jew . of King Agrippa, of the Gent..s. God was on the side of the Ro..ans, working in them to sure Paul would preach to them. God has been on our side all along.

Jesus Christ died for our sins and rose for our salvation. God sent Jesus Christ into the world so that we, would had the capacity to persecute him and crucify him, would know eternal life. After Paul's conversation, his response to the trials he endured for Christ was a witnessing presence.

How do we respond to those who would challenge our faith? How do we respond to the needs we see in our community? Do we recognize God's attempts to use in spite of our stubbornness?

• Will prepare a list of state roads in the county they'd like the state to pave. The list will be presented to John Keith of the Ky. Transportation Dept. at the Dec. 10 meeting.

"We haven't had any calls in a month."

• Agreed to pay $26,018.06 in payments the next three years, beginning July 1997 to 1999 to the Northern Kentucky Association of Counties Line Fund. Nicholas joins 112 other counties to pay such a fee for insurance. Judge Smith said the county had KACO since 1989 and compared to any other insurance, was $36,000 cheaper than all others, making the $10,000 bonus to the county while still paying the $26,018.06 fee.

•After executive session to discuss personnel, magistrates decided to give a 25 cents per hour raise to a county janitor and two secretaries and a 50 cent per hour raise to two county road workers. This was something that needed to be done to try to get this where they're making a fairer wage," Smith commented.

Hodges revealed his toll-free telephone number so citizens could have good service: 1-800-888-3244.

We haven't had any calls in a month," said Dana Price, secretary to Nicholas County Judge Executive Chuck Smith.

In other business, magistrates accepted a request from Rumpke of Mt. Sterling's Mike Cooper to continue to haul trash to the convenience center at the landfill. His original contract stated in Nov. 1994 there would be a 19 percent increase in three years, making 1997 the third year.

Magistrates tabled a bid from Palmer Engineering, Winchester, to do an engineering design for the Miller Station Bridge. The bid was $11,000. Stacy said Anna Dale Pyles of Maysville gave less expensive prices and urged the judge to call her Wednesday. Td like to see at least two bids to see if it'll go higher or lower. Maybe we'll tell her we can only go $6,000," claimed Stacy.

In other action, magistrates • Made a motion to accept the Road Fund contract for the Blue Licks Bridge with a motion by Stacy and second by Hughes

Dredging doesn't suit city council member

By Leigh Stone
Managing Editor

Hinkle Inc., has completed dredging our city lake, giving the city 50 percent more water capacity.

But the contractor's job didn't please Councilman Tommy Vaught.

"It didn't suit me," Vaughn announced to Mayor Ronnie Clark and council members Doug Garrett, Charlie Fay, Sandra Ritchie, Sharon Faulconer, Lilley Earlywine and City Clerk Mary Tapp during the 20 minute meeting.

Brothers

died and the family moved into Carlisle. He then went to work to help support his mother, brother and sister. He worked for the WGY grocery store during the day from six in the morning until six at night. He would then go home get some supper and start out to meet the train which ran to the depot in Carlisle, so he could pick up a freight of papers to be delivered throughout Carlisle and the Doreseyville area.

He was just 12 years old when he started his first job and worked doing this for two years.

Raymond's mother then remarried and his step-father moved his family to the country where his step-father had bought a farm of 161 acres. Now living around the Stoney Creek area in Nicholas County Raymond found out what farming was like and decided it would become his way of life until he retired in his 70s.

"I raised 16, 000 pounds of tobacco the last year I farmed before I retired. I believe I was just as stout then as I ever was. I only retired because my doctor told me I had to."

In 1920 he married Annie Rogers and shared his life with for 18 years until she passed away. They had no children.

In 1940 he married Mary Due Jackson and had one son, Billy Joe Brothers. They also have someone in their life, they consider their daughter, Brenda Guy Mattox. She is Mrs. Brothers' niece. "We raised Brenda from the time she was nine months old until she married," said Raymond.

Mr. and Mrs. Brothers have been married 56 years.

From the time Raymond started farming until he was around 60 years old he used a plow horse instead of a tractor. "I had just a good 3 horse farm on anyone in the country, one horse I had for 12 years until she went blind."

In recalling the Great Depression with Raymond he stated,"It never hurt me really, I always had a job. It really hurt the city people more than us. We had meat from the animals, milk cows and raised a big garden."

Raymond prepared for WWI when he was drafted , but sickness and disease got so bad that he was never drafted. "I had been drafted to A-class 1 and was ready to go if I was called." commented Raymond.

"I saw the first movie picture show ever shown in Carlisle. It was around 1905 or 1906. It was a silent movie, they had the machine and the show picture set up in the courthouse yard and the screen in front of the building where Carlisle Drug is now."

"It suits me," replied Mayor Clark. If it's not like that we won't be able to guarantee the integrity of the lake."

"It looks like a hollow," Vaughn said explaining his displeasure.

That's the way the lake was before. What makes it look crooked is that it's on a slope, so the contractor would have had a legitimate gripe is we say do more, then it produced a leak."

Clark said the contractor said solid rock and clay were at the bottom of the lake and they didn't want to be responsible for possibly damaging the bottom, creating a leak.

"It just looks like all they done is lower the blade and said, 'We're done.'

Clark said the spillway area would be dressed up eventually to beautify the work.

MICROFILM

Clark said the state was looking at providing a grant to provide 100 percent of the cost for Carlisle City maps, ordinances and minute books to be put on microfilm. The grant may even provide a way to make copies of the microfilmed materials.

CITY EMPLOYEES

As of this year, city employees, city firemen, police, all people paid through the city, will receive a $75 Christmas bonus check and a turkey. The turkey replaces door prizes, said Clark. Next year, Earlywine would like to see employees get
