Nicholas County PTA

The Nicholas County PTA has been very busy this fall. In early September, PTA sponsored the I-DENT-A-KID program. This program allowed parents to have identification cards made of their children. The group also celebrated Kentucky Kids Day. A small treat was given to the children.

A writing and drawing contest was also sponsored. The PTA members called 'Why I'm proud to be a Kentucky Kid'. The open house and membership drive took place in September. The membership drive concluded on October 15th. The winning classrooms were Anne Beard and Michelle Vice's. The children of these classes brought in the most of the PTA members.

The biggest fall event will be the Country Carnival on November 8. The Carnival will include games, a raffle, country line dancing, and an early bird Christmas shop.

Watch for details on local merchants windows. It will be a fun evening for the whole family.

The PTA provides activities for the children of the community. Each event helps fund the next activity.

Volunteers are the most important part of the PTA. Without volunteers we could not have any of our activities.

It would like to be the first in telling you fine gentlemen that I am very proud of you and hope you keep up the fine work that you do for all of the County and the City.

Nicholas County and the City of Carlisle in my opinion have the five department in the state.

Most of these men are volunteers, who just want to do a little extra for their neighbors. The two departments operate with a minimum amount of money. I cannot believe they operate as well as they do.

The fire chiefs of both departments are well known citizens of Carlisle. James Berry for the city and Mark Hughes for the county. These men are outstanding in their jobs as fire chiefs.

For the city the fire department personnel are as follows: James Berry, James Bidwell, Jeff Jefferson, Arthur Buzzard, Allen Berry, Bobby Kelly, Steve Zornes, Jimmy Willoughby, Kevin Vice, Randall Howard, Arnold Payne Jr., Robin Jefferson, Timmy Jefferson, Bob by Fay and Denise Jackson.

NC Tourism to host haunted house

There'll be some scary sights at the Old Jail starting this weekend.

The sixth annual Haunted House runs Friday and Saturday, from 7 to 10 p.m. and again Halloween night, during the same time.

And there's a bonus fright package. The sponsors, Nicholas County Tourism, has expanded the spooky walk to the upstairs of the Main Street building built in the 1800s.

"There will be a few things that will look similar, but a lot of new and scary and eerie things have been added," said Gladys Shrout of the Nicholas County Tourism.

Admission is $1 for school-age children and $2 for adults. Proceeds go to Nicholas County Tourism.

"It takes many people to man this and a lot of hard work and time goes into this," stated Shrout. "But we are willing to accept any new volunteers."

Nicholas County Lions Club member, Carmel Lester aids Jack Conroy, County attorney, in an eye exam at JMC's Health Fair.

Health fair a success

More than 200 Nicholas County residents attended the health fair at the Johnson Mathers Health Care center last Saturday.

The fair, comes back after a two year absence because of renovations of the nursing home.

A variety of health care and community services were represented, including screenings, information booths and exhibits.

There were free and discounted screenings offered by staff members of JMCIC, not to mention a one-time-only low cost flu vaccine.

Participants could also get a pulse oximetry reading and receive a coupon for a discounted health screening on lipid profiles which measure cholesterol and triglycerides.

The Nicholas County Rotary Club offered an information booth on prostate cancer and the need for checkups.

Also represented were Nicholas County Comprehensive Health Care Center, Hospital of the Bluegrass, The Central Kentucky Blood Center, The Ombudsman program, and WELCO Home Health.

The Nicholas County Lions Club gave eye screenings and Dr. John Collins from Lexington Clinic offered glaucoma.

D & B Pharmacy were on hand to answer questions about medications.

The Nicholas County Home-makers offered refreshments and the Nursing Home Family council hosted a craft and bake sale to raise money for much needed equipment.

Indoor information was the only education Health Fair attendants received.

A Java's Life demonstration was held at 11 a.m. by the Nicholas County Fire and Rescue Volunteers.

A Nicholas County ambulance and a University of Kentucky helicopter were on display for participants to view.

VFW honors first president

The Lloyd George VFW Post 8666 Ladies Auxiliary held a dedication to Colleen Power who was the first President of the Lloyd George VFW Ladies Auxiliary with 19 members in 1948.

Carol Power and Linda Worthington were present for the dedication.

Louisa Trussell led the dedication. Memories were shared by Charter members Lucille Stone and Betty Fay.

Auxiliary members present were Denise Brumagen, Edal Shidlo, Brenda Bunker, Betty Fay, Ruby McKee, Minnie Rawlings, Lucille Stone, Missy Iwings.
