Psalm 55
"...I said, 'Oh, that I had the wings of a dove! I would fly away and be at rest–I would flee far away and stay in the desert; I would hurry to my place of shelter, far from the tempest and storm...." (NIV)

Ah! What marvelous imagery! Psalm 55 jumped out of the page at me the other day, and I am grateful for its honesty and relevancy. There are times when being faithful to God means making some tough choices and making some waves. As much as we would like to believe that faith in God provides a life absolutely free of trouble, the truth of the matter is brought out in those times when one has to stand up for one's beliefs. The People of God have challenges to face. The Psalmist was able to write about them, and does so in the 55th Psalm.

The Psalm begins with a plea to God in prayer. A description of the ailments suffered is listed. Troubling thoughts linger, the enemy shouts, the wicked people stare, terror, fear and trembling have beset the Psalmist. Horror has overwhelmed him. The words bring me face to face with Jesus' prayer in the Garden of Gethsemane. Luke tells us he was in such anguish that sweat poured off of him like drops of blood falling to the ground. Nonetheless, Jesus' prayer was a plea to God to take the trials he was to endure away from him. Even Jesus pleaded with God. Perhaps he, too, thought of these words of Psalm 55 during his most difficult hours.

Like Jesus' words in Gethsemane, the words of Psalm 55 beg for escape. The Psalmist asks for the wings of a dove to allow him to fly far away and hide from the storm. In times of trouble, escape is our first instinct. But the Psalm, as well as Jesus' prayer in Gethsemane, doesn't end with the escape. Rather, the Psalm recognizes that even in the midst of the most difficult trials, God has been present, is present, and will continue to be present. God hears us when we cry. Suffering on the cross, Jesus did not feel God near when he cried out, asking why God had forsaken him–but we know the rest of the story. God did not forsake Jesus. Our Savior and Lord rose from the dead and brings us good news about eternal life–about a new covenant God has forged on our behalf.

Even though life can bring about many difficulties, and God might seem far away, our Lord has the last word. As Jesus prayed that God's will be done at the end of his prayer time in Gethsemane, Psalm 55 says, "...I call to God and the LORD saves me. Evening, morning, noon, I cry out in distress, and he hears my voice. He rescues me unharmed from the battle waged against me, even though many oppose me... But as for me, I trust in you."

Lord, as much as we wish for escape from tough times and trouble, we long to do your will. Help us to recognize your presence even in the midst of the most difficult trials. Help us to face obstacles without running away. Creator of all things, help us to pray as Jesus did. Thy will be done. Amen.

Alma Carter marks 100th

Johnson Mathers Health Care resident, Alma Carter, celebrated her 100th birthday on Wednesday, September 4.

Mrs. Carter was born in Bath County to the late Critten and Jemjimah Henry Davis. She was the ninth of 10 children and is currently the only one left living. Carter and her family moved to Millersburg in 1910 when she was just in her teens.

Sometime between 1910 and 1960 she moved to Paris and attended Chaoeter Chapel. In 1960 she moved back to Millersburg, she then moved her membership to Wood's Chapel, located in Millersburg under the Rev. M.M. McGuffey.

Carter resided in Millersburg until 1992 when she then became a resident of JMHC. Mrs. Carter is the widow of the late, Willie Carter and has no children.

During the celebration three of Mrs. Carter's best friends attributed their thoughts on Carter and her becoming a century young. Mary Pete Reeves, of Millersburg, who was also celebrating her 84th birthday the very same day stated "I've known her all my life, and I call and see about her every week. I just want to thank God he's had her here long enough to be 100 and I'm very thankful to be part of it." Anna Black of North Middletown, who is employed by Home Health Services cared for Carter starting in 1986 until 1994. She said "During the years I cared for Alma I always told her If you live to be 100 I promise you I'll be there no matter what!" Katie Grimes of Millersburg, friend of Carter remarked "She has been a great friend of mine for a long time. Why doesn't she have wrinkles?"

When Sharon Duncan, Director of Activities for JMHC asked Mrs. Carter why she was the center of attention? She proclaimed "Her age!"
