CARLISLE – A lot of open field and a recovered fumble had the Nicholas County Bluejackets falling to the Paris Greyhounds, 34 - 6.

Nicholas County actually fumbled twice in the first quarter, resulting in a touchdown by Paris.

Paris also had a 77-yard run for a touchdown in the first quarter.

But with 3:05 left in the half, Nicholas County's Bradley Hollar recovered a fumble. The After a 43-yard run, the Bluejacket's John Hamilton was able to punch in for the only touchdown.

The second half started with another touch down drive by Paris, taking them up by 14 points.

With 9:24 left to play, Paris' Antajuan Dumphord took it into the endzone for another score. The field goal attempt was good.

At the end of the third quarter the score is 27-6 Paris. In the fourth quarter Paris goes all the way for another touch down with a 69 yard run for Paris, the field goal attempt was good. With 2:44 left to go in the game Paris takes over in downs on the ten yard line.

The final score of the evening was 34 - 6 Paris Greyhounds. The Nicholas County Bluejackets will play Paintsville at home Sept. 27. Kick- off will be 7: 00 p.m.

CARLISLE – The Nicholas County Jr. High Jackets shut down the Paris Greyhounds Jr. High with a 40-0 score on Sept. 19.

Herrington was on a role throughout the game, dancing into the endzone for Nicholas County's first touch down with 4:02 left in the first quarter.

The two point conversion was no good. Paris was unable to move the ball in the next series.

Josh Hunt took the ball into the endzone for another touch down for the Jackets.

With speed and pizazz Josh Hunt took the ball home for another score, with Seth Saunders running in for two points.

With 36 seconds to go in the first quarter, Paris fumbled and Nicholas recovered.

Herrington waltzed in for another touchdown and Seth Saunders for the two point conversion.

The Jackets ended the half with a 28-0 lead.

Hunt started the second half off with a run to the end zone. The two point conversion was no good.

In the last half of play Nicholas County manages to put one more touch down and their belt to finish with a score of 40-0 Nicholas County Bluejackets.

The eighth grade got started with similar play as the seventh with # 48 Ryan Hunter taking it in for a touch down with the two point conversion play being no good. With a fumble on the play Paris recovers the ball, but with a bad snap gives Nicholas back the ball on their own 17 yard line. For # 72 Rodney Trussell to take it in for touch down.

With 4: 37 left to play in the quarter # 5 Shelby Young takes it in for the touch down Paris, the two point conversion play was no good. Nicholas County answers the call and Hunter takes it in for another touch down Jackets. With the attempt of two points being no good. # 88 Josh Jackson didn't like that by the Jackets so he also had to take one in for the touch down. While on the line of scrimmage # 5 Young was given a penalty for unsportsman like conduct.

Ryan Hunter felt the need for another touch down and took it all the way, with # 35 Dustin Hill taking the two point conversion in. In the last few minutes of play in the half Paris fumbles the ball and Nicholas County's # 88 makes the touch down. Derek Fights shows them how to take it in for a two point conversion play.

At half time the score board showed 34- 12 Nicholas County.

In the third quarter with 3: 30 left to play Bluejackets take over in downs. With .21 seconds left on the clock Nicholas County doesn't want to seem like they've given up so # 35 Dustin Hill takes it into the end zone for six more points, # 10 Josh Fryman doesn't want to be left out so he takes it in for the two point conversion.

Ryan Hunter recovers the ball after Paris has a fumble to set up the play and # 10 Josh Fryman to score for the touch down and # 14 Scott Terrell for the two point conversion.

Don' t Fear Nicholas County is not through with a touch down in the fourth quarter by # 32 Josh Hunt and the two point conversion by # 14 Scott Terrell to end the game with the score of 58- 12 Nicholas County.

The Nicholas County Jr. High will meet again Thursday Sept. 26 at home. They will be facing Powell County. Game time is 6: 30.

Bluejackets lose close one with Bath Wildcats

By Laura Fryman
Sports Editor

It was a fight to the end, before the Nicholas County Bluejackets gave way to the Bath County Wildcats, 34-30.

The Sept. 23 game began with Bath County quickly racking upeight.

But Nicholas County quicly answered back with Daniel Eubanks running for a touchdown and Weston Smoot making the two-pointer.

But the Wildcats didn't take it lying down and quickly scored another touchdown and two points.

Before the half time Bath County took it into the end zone for yet another touch down. When the buzzer went off for half time the score was 24- 8 Wildcats.

When the second half resumed Bath stripped the ball and took it in to the end zone for a two point safety. Nicholas proved they were not finished when # 56 Jeremy Harmon made a beautiful run and took it into the end zone for a touch down Nicholas County. The two point conversion was no good.

It looked like Nicholas might pull ahead when Bath County made another touch down and took the two point conversion.

Weston Smoot with a glamorous and athletic run, went into the end zone for a touch down and # 82 Landon Hutchison made the two point conversion work. Weston was still not done and danced into the end zone with yet another touch down with # 80 Brian Wagoner put the two point conversion down to the line.

The final score was 34- 30 Bath County. Nicholas County will play their next game Sept. 30 against Lewis County at home. Kick - off will be 5: 30

Small fry Bluejackets defeat Rowan County

By Laura Fryman

Nicholas County's third- and fourth-grade team and fifth- and sixth-grade teams both walked away with victories last week against Rowan County teams.

The Bluejacket third- and fourth-graders started with a touchdown run by Adam Dunn. The two point conversion was no good.

Nicholas' Kevin Ring also took the ball in.

Nicholas County was able to recover a fumble late in the game.

The final score was 12 to 8.

The fifth and sixth grade game was just as exciting with # 8 Jeremy Barton going in for the first touch down of the evening for the team, and # 3 Donald Green for the two point conversion being good. Also with a touch down # 44 R. D. Sexton and the two point conversion was no good.

Sexton got the taste of victory in his mouth and decided to take it in for another touch down for Nicholas County. Michael Ockerman did not stand on the side lines and just do nothing , he took it all the way for yet another touch down.

Rowan County won't stand by and go home without a point, so # 6 of the Vikings take it all the way for a touch down , to make the final score 26- 6 Nicholas County.

The next game for the boys will be Sunday Sept. 28. at home. Kick off will be at 2: 00 p.m..
