

Smoot-Plummer exchange wedding vows in Paris ceremony

Miss Sara Hurst Smoot and Mr. Steven Wayne Plummer were united in Holy Matrimony on Saturday, September 14, 1996, at the Church of the Annunciation Catholic Church, Paris, Kentucky.

Sara Hurst Smoot Plummer is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Fry of Carlisle.

The candlelight ceremony began at 7 p.m. with the seating of the bride and groom's grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Eugene B. Smoot, Mr. and Mrs. James Plummer and Mrs. Mary Catherine Knappke provided selected music "SOMEDAY TO WATCH OVER ME". As the couples parents Mr. and Mrs. John Nicholas Smoot, Millersburg, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Nelson Plummer, Paris, were escorted to the altar to light the unity candles. Ms. Michelle Knappke sang "Turn-rose, Turned".

Adorned with ivory candles, the church was a beautiful setting for the double ring ceremony performed by Father Thomas Farrell. Ms. Malinda Sears, Pikeville, kept the guest registry. Ms. Anna Smoot, sister of the bride, Mrs. Pamela McFarland, sister of the groom, Mrs. Kelly Smoot, sister-in-law of the bride, Ms. Kristina Carroll, Mrs. Maria Fernandez, Lexington, and Ms. Holly O'Neal, Richmond, friends of the couple were the attendants. Ms. Tracy Reynolds, Lexington, special friend of the bride, was the maid of honor. The bridesmaid was conveyed with the bride by the groom's sister, Mrs. Kaitly Claire Maugh of Paris. The attendants dressed in white designed by Sara Hurst. The two-piece dresses were made of royal tulle and accented with vertical lace. The flower girl wore a navy tulle and ivory doll dress with white wicker basket with navy ribbon. Each carried a bouquet of gerber daisies, star gazer lilies, alstroemeria, statice, and baby's breath.

Vocal music provided by Mrs. Janet Hawkins, Jamestown, North Carolina, sister of the groom, and Ms. Michelle Knappke, Carlisle. They were accompanied by Ms. Rebecca Mitchell, 16 long friend of the bride, Louisville, and organist Mrs. Kenny Knappke, Carlisle.

Mr. Jack Plummer, Mr. Wayne Barkin, uncle of the bride, performed the reading of the scriptures. Elected to the altar by her father-in-law, Steven Wayne Plummer, gave an elegant toast. The bride's grandparents, the Billy and Holly Fry, a blue oval vase, filled with white flowers, and an antique silver cake knife belonging to Mrs. Edna Jones, complemented the table.

The bride attended the University of Kentucky as a member of Sigma Kappa Sorority, a graduate of Sullivan County, receiving a degree in tourism and travel. She is employed by Pioneer Publishing, Inc. in Lexington, Kentucky. The groom is a graduate of Eastern Kentucky University receiving a degree in education from the University of KY. He is employed by Comair Airlines, in Clarksville, Kentucky, and is a flight instructor with Bluegrass Flying Club.

After a two-week wedding trip to the Hawaiian Islands the couple resides in Lexington. The bride and groom were entertained at a luncheon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Vaughn Fry in Danville, hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Harold Fry and Mrs. Edna Woods, sister of the groom, hosted a bride shower at their home in Paris. The bride was entertained at a supper/dinner hosted by Mrs. Patricia Wilson and Miss Laura Wilson in Paris. The couple was entertained with a shoot-the-Burrito hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds Bell and Mr. and Mrs. Bailey Bourbon County, Ky. Pamela McFarland, sister of the groom, entertained the bride at her home with a bridal shower. Dr. and Mrs. Bart McFarland hosted a cocktail at their home on Stone Point Road, Bourbon County.

Hundred of tiny lights created a fairy land atmosphere where guests toasted the couple and enjoyed dancing. Denny O'Brien presided at the bride's residence belonging to the bride's grandparents, the Billy and Holly Fry, a blue oval vase, filled with white flowers, and an antique silver cake knife belonging to Mrs. Edna Jones, complemented the table.

The bride attended the University of Kentucky as a member of Sigma Kappa Sorority, a graduate of Sullivan County, receiving a degree in tourism and travel.
