

County library, extension team up for Friday PIE

The Nicholas County Public Library and the Nicholas County Cooperative Extension Service believe they have found an effective method of engaging their citizens. It's a program called the National Issues Forums, and this year's program will bring this program to Nicholas County for the first time on April 11. The public forum will look at the future of the Social Security system, and will run from 12 noon - 1:30 p.m. in the Harrison United Methodist Church.

Other survivors: A daughter, Mrs. Dan Judy Caswell Smith Lexington; A sister, Danielle Smith, Denver Co.; and Jason Smith, Lexington. He also preceded in death by a son, Douglas Kent Caswell. Services will be Thursday, April 10, at Mathers - Gause Funeral Home, by Rev. James Doughton. Burial will be in the Carlisle Cemetery.

Revel will be held at the Carlisle United Methodist Church, April 14-15. Monday - Friday, Rev. Willard Knipp will be the evangelist. Special singing each night, Rev. Howard Livingston, Pastor. Visitation after 4 p.m. Wednesday, April 9.

Kids connect at Library Week set April 13-19

This year's National Library Week, April 13-19, celebrates the wonderful world of learning and fun to be found with the "Kids Connect at the Library." The goal: To encourage parents, grandparents and other caregivers to bring children to libraries early and often help them connect to books, computers and other resources that will help them to learn and grow throughout their lives.
