Curtis reunion held at Depot

The descendants of the late G.O. and Janie Curtis held their annual family reunion on Sunday, July 20, 1997 at the Depot in Carlisle. A basket lunch was served and everyone present enjoyed the day.
Persons in attendance were: Nellie C. Graves, Bobby Ann Mary E. Graves of Fairview; Robbie, Tara, Anna Beth and Abigail Graves of Orangeburg, Ky.
Bill and Wilma Dene Hunter of Blue Licks, Harold and Marilyn Hamm of New Ewing, Margene Mitchell of Carlisle, Nancy Ham of Carlisle, Frank and Donna Ham of Harrodsburg, Fanny Ham of Lexington, Charlotte Williams of Clantonville, Alabama, Bill Waggoner of Mayville, Ky.
The oldest attending was Nellie C. Graves, who is 90 years young.
The youngest was Abigail Graves who is three months old. Anna Beth Graves and Abigail Nicole Black still hold a record of not missing a reunion since their birth. All three of these lovely young ladies are the great-granddaughters of Nellie Graves.

Joining Anns Beth and Amber was Jordan Thompson, although unable to attend every year, she had a great time visiting with them. She is the great-granddaughter of Claude and Catherine Curtis.
The reunion will be held on the third Sunday of July next year at the same location, and we encourage all family members to attend.
Charlotte Williams traveled the farthest, having come from Clantonville, Alabama.
