

Saltwell News

By Mrs. Fred Hollar

Mrs. Vaughn Mattox entered Nicholas County Hospital on Friday morning for treatment and remained a patient there for further treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank McClay were visitors in Georgetown on Saturday.

A large crowd attended a visitation on Thursday night with the family of A. Gause and the late funeral Friday evening.

The funeral was held at the Matthews Gause Chapel with the Rev. James Gause and the Rev. Howard Livingston officiating. Burial was in Saltwell Cemetery.

Mrs. Sue Turner of Millsburg has been a patient at Nicholas County Hospital the past week as a result of a fractured arm and pneumonia. She returned to the home of her sister Mrs. Mary Peck and Dennis on Saturday.

Allen Gause and family of Indianapolis, Ind., returned home Sunday after spending the past week here. They attended the visitation and funeral of his father, H. A. Gause.

Rev. and Mrs. Julian Hammond of Carlisle are preaching at Headquarters on Sunday and the Rev. Howard Livingston on Monday.

John Lee Allison of Sharpburg spent Saturday night and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Gary Hallar.

Keneth Williams, Lexington, and Deloris Caswell of Carlisle were Sunday with Mrs. H. A. Gause and Amanda.

Israel Stacy and Michelle Denise Jolly

Jolly-Stacy

Mr. and Mrs. Michael D. Jolly of Carlisle would like to announce the engagement and forthcoming marriage of their daughter Michelle Denise Jolly to Israel Stacy of Lexington.

The wedding will be Sept. 27, 1997 at 3:30 p.m. at the Carlisle Assembly of God Church.

Kerns-Ingram

April Kerns and Phillip Pennington, and Mike Knox. Ingram were united in marriage on May 10, 1997 at the First Assembly Church of Mt. Sterling. The bride is the daughter of Sidney Kerns of Mt. Sterling and Debbie Simmons of Lansing.

April Kerns and Phillip Ingram

Deaths

MADGE "MARGIE" CUNNINGHAM STEEDMAN, 90, of Bates and former of 14 Rosewood Avenue, died Saturday, Aug. 14, 1997, at a local hospital at Asheville, North Carolina.

She was a native of Henderson County and had lived in Booneville, Kentucky, from 1927. She was the daughter of the late Preston Brooks and Mrs. Mary Ann Brooks.

She was a member of the United Methodist Church and had been a member of the United Methodist Women's Society since 1927.

She was a member of the United Methodist Church and had been a member of the United Methodist Women's Society since 1927.

She was a member of the United Methodist Church and had been a member of the United Methodist Women's Society since 1927.

She was a member of the United Methodist Church and had been a member of the United Methodist Women's Society since 1927.

She was a member of the United Methodist Church and had been a member of the United Methodist Women's Society since 1927.

She was a member of the United Methodist Church and had been a member of the United Methodist Women's Society since 1927.

She was a member of the United Methodist Church and had been a member of the United Methodist Women's Society since 1927.

She was a member of the United Methodist Church and had been a member of the United Methodist Women's Society since 1927.

She was a member of the United Methodist Church and had been a member of the United Methodist Women's Society since 1927.

She was a member of the United Methodist Church and had been a member of the United Methodist Women's Society since 1927.

She was a member of the United Methodist Church and had been a member of the United Methodist Women's Society since 1927.

She was a member of the United Methodist Church and had been a member of the United Methodist Women's Society since 1927.

She was a member of the United Methodist Church and had been a member of the United Methodist Women's Society since 1927.

She was a member of the United Methodist Church and had been a member of the United Methodist Women's Society since 1927.

Pastor's Pent

By Sue McCracken Moorefield Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) While preparing for a marital counseling session, I came across a poem many of you would use. There's far too much stress in our world today. We live today as we rush from meetings to school to ball games to church and back again. The author, though unknown, has offered us some words to live by.

Thoughtlessness A little bit of hatred can spoil a score of years and blur the eyes that ought to smile.

With many needless tears. A little bit of thoughtlessness and anger for a day can rob a home of all its joy and drive happiness away.

A little bit of shouting in a sharp and vicious tone can leave a sting that will be felt.

When many years have flown, just one hasty minute of uncontrolled anger, even if it never comes off and never injures anyone.

The Gospel of John 13:34.

Vanlandingham-Atkins

Mr. and Mrs. Scott Vanlandingham of Carlisle would like to announce the marriage of their daughter Susan Kay to Kevin L. Atkins of Lexington. The couple will reside in Lexington.

Tincher family reunion held at Carlisle Depot

The Tincher family reunion was held Sunday August 17, 1997 at the Depot in Carlisle. Over 100 relatives attended.

Harold H. Coppock, 60, of 277 S. North St. Carlisle, died Saturday August 16, 1997 at the Nicholas County Home.

John Cecil Myrner, 52, of Carlisle, widower of Mary Keller Sanders Myrner, died 1:45 a.m. Tuesday, Aug. 19, 1997 at his home in Johnson Road.

Virgil Leon Walters, 66, of Dixie Highway, husband of Dixie Walters, died Wednesday April 13, 1997 at St. Joseph Hospital.

Christy Marie Whitaker, Carlisle, wife of James C. Myrner, died Monday, August 18, 1997 at the Nicholas County Home.

Edna Ethel Myrner Wagner and Gladys Dora Myrner Anderson, two sisters and one nephew.

Services were 1 p.m. Saturday August 16, 1997 at Matthews Gause Funeral Home in Lexington.

Services were 1 p.m. Saturday August 16, 1997 at Matthews Gause Funeral Home in Lexington.

Services were 1 p.m. Saturday August 16, 1997 at Matthews Gause Funeral Home in Lexington.

Pastor's Pent

By Sue McCracken Moorefield Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) While preparing for a marital counseling session, I came across a poem many of you would use. There's far too much stress in our world today. We live today as we rush from meetings to school to ball games to church and back again. The author, though unknown, has offered us some words to live by.

Thoughtlessness A little bit of hatred can spoil a score of years and blur the eyes that ought to smile.

With many needless tears. A little bit of thoughtlessness and anger for a day can rob a home of all its joy and drive happiness away.

A little bit of shouting in a sharp and vicious tone can leave a sting that will be felt.

When many years have flown, just one hasty minute of uncontrolled anger, even if it never comes off and never injures anyone.

The Gospel of John 13:34.

Vanlandingham-Atkins

Mr. and Mrs. Scott Vanlandingham of Carlisle would like to announce the marriage of their daughter Susan Kay to Kevin L. Atkins of Lexington. The couple will reside in Lexington.

Tincher family reunion held at Carlisle Depot

The Tincher family reunion was held Sunday August 17, 1997 at the Depot in Carlisle. Over 100 relatives attended.

Harold H. Coppock, 60, of 277 S. North St. Carlisle, died Saturday August 16, 1997 at the Nicholas County Home.

John Cecil Myrner, 52, of Carlisle, widower of Mary Keller Sanders Myrner, died 1:45 a.m. Tuesday, Aug. 19, 1997 at his home in Johnson Road.

Virgil Leon Walters, 66, of Dixie Highway, husband of Dixie Walters, died Wednesday April 13, 1997 at St. Joseph Hospital.

Christy Marie Whitaker, Carlisle, wife of James C. Myrner, died Monday, August 18, 1997 at the Nicholas County Home.

Edna Ethel Myrner Wagner and Gladys Dora Myrner Anderson, two sisters and one nephew.

Services were 1 p.m. Saturday August 16, 1997 at Matthews Gause Funeral Home in Lexington.

Services were 1 p.m. Saturday August 16, 1997 at Matthews Gause Funeral Home in Lexington.

Services were 1 p.m. Saturday August 16, 1997 at Matthews Gause Funeral Home in Lexington.

Pastor's Pent

By Sue McCracken Moorefield Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) While preparing for a marital counseling session, I came across a poem many of you would use. There's far too much stress in our world today. We live today as we rush from meetings to school to ball games to church and back again. The author, though unknown, has offered us some words to live by.

Thoughtlessness A little bit of hatred can spoil a score of years and blur the eyes that ought to smile.

With many needless tears. A little bit of thoughtlessness and anger for a day can rob a home of all its joy and drive happiness away.

A little bit of shouting in a sharp and vicious tone can leave a sting that will be felt.

When many years have flown, just one hasty minute of uncontrolled anger, even if it never comes off and never injures anyone.

The Gospel of John 13:34.

Vanlandingham-Atkins

Mr. and Mrs. Scott Vanlandingham of Carlisle would like to announce the marriage of their daughter Susan Kay to Kevin L. Atkins of Lexington. The couple will reside in Lexington.

Tincher family reunion held at Carlisle Depot

The Tincher family reunion was held Sunday August 17, 1997 at the Depot in Carlisle. Over 100 relatives attended.

Harold H. Coppock, 60, of 277 S. North St. Carlisle, died Saturday August 16, 1997 at the Nicholas County Home.

John Cecil Myrner, 52, of Carlisle, widower of Mary Keller Sanders Myrner, died 1:45 a.m. Tuesday, Aug. 19, 1997 at his home in Johnson Road.

Virgil Leon Walters, 66, of Dixie Highway, husband of Dixie Walters, died Wednesday April 13, 1997 at St. Joseph Hospital.

Christy Marie Whitaker, Carlisle, wife of James C. Myrner, died Monday, August 18, 1997 at the Nicholas County Home.

Edna Ethel Myrner Wagner and Gladys Dora Myrner Anderson, two sisters and one nephew.

Services were 1 p.m. Saturday August 16, 1997 at Matthews Gause Funeral Home in Lexington.

Services were 1 p.m. Saturday August 16, 1997 at Matthews Gause Funeral Home in Lexington.

Services were 1 p.m. Saturday August 16, 1997 at Matthews Gause Funeral Home in Lexington.

Pastor's Pent

By Sue McCracken Moorefield Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) While preparing for a marital counseling session, I came across a poem many of you would use. There's far too much stress in our world today. We live today as we rush from meetings to school to ball games to church and back again. The author, though unknown, has offered us some words to live by.

Thoughtlessness A little bit of hatred can spoil a score of years and blur the eyes that ought to smile.

With many needless tears. A little bit of thoughtlessness and anger for a day can rob a home of all its joy and drive happiness away.

A little bit of shouting in a sharp and vicious tone can leave a sting that will be felt.

When many years have flown, just one hasty minute of uncontrolled anger, even if it never comes off and never injures anyone.

The Gospel of John 13:34.

Vanlandingham-Atkins

Mr. and Mrs. Scott Vanlandingham of Carlisle would like to announce the marriage of their daughter Susan Kay to Kevin L. Atkins of Lexington. The couple will reside in Lexington.

Tincher family reunion held at Carlisle Depot

The Tincher family reunion was held Sunday August 17, 1997 at the Depot in Carlisle. Over 100 relatives attended.

Harold H. Coppock, 60, of 277 S. North St. Carlisle, died Saturday August 16, 1997 at the Nicholas County Home.

John Cecil Myrner, 52, of Carlisle, widower of Mary Keller Sanders Myrner, died 1:45 a.m. Tuesday, Aug. 19, 1997 at his home in Johnson Road.

Virgil Leon Walters, 66, of Dixie Highway, husband of Dixie Walters, died Wednesday April 13, 1997 at St. Joseph Hospital.

Christy Marie Whitaker, Carlisle, wife of James C. Myrner, died Monday, August 18, 1997 at the Nicholas County Home.

Edna Ethel Myrner Wagner and Gladys Dora Myrner Anderson, two sisters and one nephew.

Services were 1 p.m. Saturday August 16, 1997 at Matthews Gause Funeral Home in Lexington.

Services were 1 p.m. Saturday August 16, 1997 at Matthews Gause Funeral Home in Lexington.

Services were 1 p.m. Saturday August 16, 1997 at Matthews Gause Funeral Home in Lexington.

Pastor's Pent

By Sue McCracken Moorefield Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) While preparing for a marital counseling session, I came across a poem many of you would use. There's far too much stress in our world today. We live today as we rush from meetings to school to ball games to church and back again. The author, though unknown, has offered us some words to live by.

Thoughtlessness A little bit of hatred can spoil a score of years and blur the eyes that ought to smile.

With many needless tears. A little bit of thoughtlessness and anger for a day can rob a home of all its joy and drive happiness away.

A little bit of shouting in a sharp and vicious tone can leave a sting that will be felt.

When many years have flown, just one hasty minute of uncontrolled anger, even if it never comes off and never injures anyone.

The Gospel of John 13:34.

Vanlandingham-Atkins

Mr. and Mrs. Scott Vanlandingham of Carlisle would like to announce the marriage of their daughter Susan Kay to Kevin L. Atkins of Lexington. The couple will reside in Lexington.

Tincher family reunion held at Carlisle Depot

The Tincher family reunion was held Sunday August 17, 1997 at the Depot in Carlisle. Over 100 relatives attended.

Harold H. Coppock, 60, of 277 S. North St. Carlisle, died Saturday August 16, 1997 at the Nicholas County Home.

John Cecil Myrner, 52, of Carlisle, widower of Mary Keller Sanders Myrner, died 1:45 a.m. Tuesday, Aug. 19, 1997 at his home in Johnson Road.

Virgil Leon Walters, 66, of Dixie Highway, husband of Dixie Walters, died Wednesday April 13, 1997 at St. Joseph Hospital.

Christy Marie Whitaker, Carlisle, wife of James C. Myrner, died Monday, August 18, 1997 at the Nicholas County Home.

Edna Ethel Myrner Wagner and Gladys Dora Myrner Anderson, two sisters and one nephew.

Services were 1 p.m. Saturday August 16, 1997 at Matthews Gause Funeral Home in Lexington.

Services were 1 p.m. Saturday August 16, 1997 at Matthews Gause Funeral Home in Lexington.

Services were 1 p.m. Saturday August 16, 1997 at Matthews Gause Funeral Home in Lexington.

Pastor's Pent

By Sue McCracken Moorefield Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) While preparing for a marital counseling session, I came across a poem many of you would use. There's far too much stress in our world today. We live today as we rush from meetings to school to ball games to church and back again. The author, though unknown, has offered us some words to live by.

Thoughtlessness A little bit of hatred can spoil a score of years and blur the eyes that ought to smile.

With many needless tears. A little bit of thoughtlessness and anger for a day can rob a home of all its joy and drive happiness away.

A little bit of shouting in a sharp and vicious tone can leave a sting that will be felt.

When many years have flown, just one hasty minute of uncontrolled anger, even if it never comes off and never injures anyone.

The Gospel of John 13:34.

Vanlandingham-Atkins

Mr. and Mrs. Scott Vanlandingham of Carlisle would like to announce the marriage of their daughter Susan Kay to Kevin L. Atkins of Lexington. The couple will reside in Lexington.

Tincher family reunion held at Carlisle Depot

The Tincher family reunion was held Sunday August 17, 1997 at the Depot in Carlisle. Over 100 relatives attended.

Harold H. Coppock, 60, of 277 S. North St. Carlisle, died Saturday August 16, 1997 at the Nicholas County Home.

John Cecil Myrner, 52, of Carlisle, widower of Mary Keller Sanders Myrner, died 1:45 a.m. Tuesday, Aug. 19, 1997 at his home in Johnson Road.

Virgil Leon Walters, 66, of Dixie Highway, husband of Dixie Walters, died Wednesday April 13, 1997 at St. Joseph Hospital.

Christy Marie Whitaker, Carlisle, wife of James C. Myrner, died Monday, August 18, 1997 at the Nicholas County Home.

Edna Ethel Myrner Wagner and Gladys Dora Myrner Anderson, two sisters and one nephew.

Services were 1 p.m. Saturday August 16, 1997 at Matthews Gause Funeral Home in Lexington.

Services were 1 p.m. Saturday August 16, 1997 at Matthews Gause Funeral Home in Lexington.

Services were 1 p.m. Saturday August 16, 1997 at Matthews Gause Funeral Home in Lexington.

Family welcomes 1st child

James Todd Allen Browning. His maternal grandparents are Brenda and Ronnie White of Morefield and Steve Jolly of Millsburg.

McCarty earns rank as 2nd Lt.

Ronald D. McCarty has been commissioned as a second lieutenant through the Air Force ROTC Reserve Officer Training Corps program after earning his bachelor's degree at Kent State University, Kent, Ohio.

Routt goes in competition

Adam Routt, a 1996 graduate of Bourbon County High School, recently completed the 1997 National Phi Lambda Conference in Anaheim, California. He placed third in the Deaktor Publishing event which also placed Sullivan College for the first time at National Competition.

Floras welcome first child

Daniel and Rana Flora of Sharpburg are proud to announce the birth of their first child, a daughter, Carriann Brooke Flora.

Carrigan Brooke Flora

Floras welcome first child

Paternal great-grandparents are Josephine Pirard and the late Henry Milton Floras and Ruth Dunn and the late Roger Dunn.

Maternal great-grandparents are Clarence Prater and the late Gene Prater and Mary Opal Jones and the late Irvin Jones.

Annual Ham reunion hosts 113 at Blue Licks

The descendants of Cabhead Willie Belle Ham met at the Blue Licks State Park on Aug. 8-9, 1997 for their annual family reunion.

There were approximately 113 in attendance. Those present were Wima and Bill Hunter, Billy Ed and Jesse Hunter, Janice and Larry Price, Tiffany, Tyler, Timothy and Brandon Emmers, David and Marty Hunter, Britany Hunter, Melissa and Darrell Hinton, Jimmie and Cassie, Irene and Josh Herment, Dan and DeNell Ham, and Brandon, Cheryl and Jeff Schuler, Phillip, Laura, Wendel and Bradley.

Lisa and Mike Gains, Mandy Kristi, Becca, and Britany, Jason and Kelly Bauer, Madison and Logan, Katherine Brill, Don Shane, Scott and Kelly Hudnall with Taylor and Amanda. A great feast was had by all. Afternoon visitors were Jackie Huddall and son Josh, Dean and Jackie Hudnall and son and Linda Morris.

HOME FOR SALE 219 Archdale Ave., Carlisle, KY. Charming older home in quiet neighborhood. 3 bedroom, full bath, 2 car garage, formal dining room, formal living room, family room, all for only $67,000. Shown by appointment only. Call Cindy Mullins (606) 293-7134 1-800-859-8788

REAL ESTATE 1981 Ruff Road - Sharpburg (Nicholas County) Attention! Sale contract fell through. Owner relocating! A nice 3 bedroom brick home located on a 2.58 level acres with full bath. Tobacco base. Nest home and a motivated seller. Don't put off seeing this one! Call 498-4317 McCormick Real Estate & Auction Co., Inc. Mt. Sterling, Ky (606) 498-4317

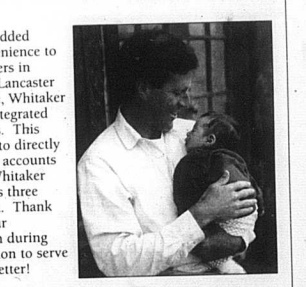

AUGUST, 1997 SPECIALTY SERVICES AUG. 25th - AUG. 29th Monday Sanford Archer, M.D. - Ears, Nose, Throat - 7:45 am Wednesday Karl Schustard, M.D. - General Surgery - 9 a.m.

Wednesday Paul Combs, M.D. - Cardiology - 2 p.m. Friday Regine Raab, M.D. - Neurology - 8:30 A.M.

Please Note Schedule Change DR. RAAH'S NEUROLOGY CLINIC is moving to FRIDAY MORNING Renew your subscription Renew your subscription

NICHOLAS COUNTY HOSPITAL Renew your subscription Renew your subscription

Feel At Home Wherever You Go

As a added convenience to our customers in Lexington, Lancaster and Carlisle, Whitaker Bank has integrated our systems. This allows you to directly access your accounts from any Whitaker Bank in this three county area. Thank you for your cooperation during this transition to serve you even better!

Whitaker Bank

2311 Paris Pike Lexington, Ky 40505 Lancaster 606-792-3091 Lexington 606-299-9200 Carlisle 606-287-2251 MEMBER FDIC