No one prouder to be a Kentuckian

Dear Editor:

In reply to Ms. Gates-Poe's letter (I did not know that my original one had even been printed since as usual we'did not get that paper. Today's was the first in weeks and weeks to ar-rive. Still addressed to Yarmouth Canada, Nova Scotia ! Oh well.)

Yarmouth Canada, Nova Scotia (O h well). First I wish to sincerely prirst I wish to sincerely apologize to readers if my ref-erences to the term 'hillbilly was not my intention. No one is more offended than myself when that term is used to ridicule or insult. My meaning was no less than a comment meant to imply that if someone wishes to present also do though, is be a loving advisor to my father and do my best to save him the embarding and the same and

Student of the Week

Opon high school graduation, fyan would like to attend the University of Kentucky and study to become a robotics technician. He hopes to someday work for a major automotive company. Ryan was nominated for this honor by Principal

School secretary Paula Hunter and Reid said

Ryan successfully programmed the school bell computer to ring at the correct times between Ryan Uptégraft is this week's Student of the class blocks. "We couldn't get the bells to ring at the regular Ryan, a sophomore, is the son of Sherry Upter that of Carlisle." It me and Ryan's always been a good student. He does really well in school, "Hunter said. Ryan, a sopnomere, is the solt of solery Opte-graft of Carlisle.

Ryan likes science and social studies and being a member of the Kentucky Computer Society.

Upon high school graduation, Ryan would like to bells to work. "I read the handbook and did it."

The Carlisle Mercury will profile one student each week, chosen by the faculty of their respective school. Watch this space in future issues.
