

REAR END

covered $100,000 in stolen property, including two semi-trailers. Federal charges pending.

March - The rural Neandere-Cordova Road, in the northwestern portion of the county, three passengers of a pickup truck were ejected and killed after striking a tree. The vehicle went unspooled for several hours.

April - Twenty-five troopers, assisted by local police, took part in a pre-dawn drug round-up entitled "Operation Spring Cleaning." With warrants in hand, Troopers arrested 22 adults on 28 charges of drug related.

May - Detective Tim Layne investigated the discovery of a female infant, only two to three hours old, found inside a gym bag in the men's restroom at Nicholas County Hospital. The girl, nicknamed Baby Hope, survived. Her parents have not been located.

Nicholas, Grant and Bourbon Counties: November - A pre-dawn, statewide drug round-up netted more than 500 arrests of alleged mid to upper level dealers. Locally, troopers made 29 arrests on 57 charges including a Crittenden mother and son. The boy was charged with foregoing of trafficking in marijuana; the mother with trafficking within 1,000 yards of a school and unlawful transaction with a minor (her son).

Bourbon County: October - Troopers Derek Hall, and Roger G. Smalzer investigated a deadly crash that killed a mother and son. The investigation concluded that falling to wear seatbelts contributed to the death of Nancy and Daniel Johnson, after their vehicle ran off the road and struck a tree.

Harrison County: March - Detective Frank Morris investigated the shooting death of Anna Mann, 40, of Cynthia whose body was found near a trailer home on Wurnal Lane. March - Trooper Steve Owen, assisted by local officers, charged a trip with theft by unlawful taking and receiving stolen property. They recovered $100,000 in stolen property, including two semi-trailers. Federal charges pending.

March - The rural Neandere-Cordova Road, in the northwestern portion of the county, three passengers of a pickup truck were ejected and killed after striking a tree. The vehicle went unspooled for several hours.

April - Twenty-five troopers, assisted by local police, took part in a pre-dawn drug round-up entitled "Operation Spring Cleaning." With warrants in hand, Troopers arrested 22 adults on 28 charges of drug related.

May - Detective Tim Layne investigated the discovery of a female infant, only two to three hours old, found inside a gym bag in the men's restroom at Nicholas County Hospital. The girl, nicknamed Baby Hope, survived. Her parents have not been located.

Nicholas, Grant and Bourbon Counties: November - A pre-dawn, statewide drug round-up netted more than 500 arrests of alleged mid to upper level dealers. Locally, troopers made 29 arrests on 57 charges including a Crittenden mother and son. The boy was charged with foregoing of trafficking in marijuana; the mother with trafficking within 1,000 yards of a school and unlawful transaction with a minor (her son).

Bourbon County: October - Troopers Derek Hall, and Roger G. Smalzer investigated a deadly crash that killed a mother and son. The investigation concluded that falling to wear seatbelts contributed to the death of Nancy and Daniel Johnson, after their vehicle ran off the road and struck a tree.

Harrison County: March - Detective Frank Morris investigated the shooting death of Anna Mann, 40, of Cynthia whose body was found near a trailer home on Wurnal Lane. March - Trooper Steve Owen, assisted by local officers, charged a trip with theft by unlawful taking and receiving stolen property. They recovered $100,000 in stolen property, including two semi-trailers. Federal charges pending.

March - The rural Neandere-Cordova Road, in the northwestern portion of the county, three passengers of a pickup truck were ejected and killed after striking a tree. The vehicle went unspooled for several hours.

April - Twenty-five troopers, assisted by local police, took part in a pre-dawn drug round-up entitled "Operation Spring Cleaning." With warrants in hand, Troopers arrested 22 adults on 28 charges of drug related.

May - Detective Tim Layne investigated the discovery of a female infant, only two to three hours old, found inside a gym bag in the men's restroom at Nicholas County Hospital. The girl, nicknamed Baby Hope, survived. Her parents have not been located.

Nicholas, Grant and Bourbon Counties: November - A pre-dawn, statewide drug round-up netted more than 500 arrests of alleged mid to upper level dealers. Locally, troopers made 29 arrests on 57 charges including a Crittenden mother and son. The boy was charged with foregoing of trafficking in marijuana; the mother with trafficking within 1,000 yards of a school and unlawful transaction with a minor (her son).

Bourbon County: October - Troopers Derek Hall, and Roger G. Smalzer investigated a deadly crash that killed a mother and son. The investigation concluded that falling to wear seatbelts contributed to the death of Nancy and Daniel Johnson, after their vehicle ran off the road and struck a tree.

Harrison County: March - Detective Frank Morris investigated the shooting death of Anna Mann, 40, of Cynthia whose body was found near a trailer home on Wurnal Lane. March - Trooper Steve Owen, assisted by local officers, charged a trip with theft by unlawful taking and receiving stolen property. They recovered $100,000 in stolen property, including two semi-trailers. Federal charges pending.

March - The rural Neandere-Cordova Road, in the northwestern portion of the county, three passengers of a pickup truck were ejected and killed after striking a tree. The vehicle went unspooled for several hours.

April - Twenty-five troopers, assisted by local police, took part in a pre-dawn drug round-up entitled "Operation Spring Cleaning." With warrants in hand, Troopers arrested 22 adults on 28 charges of drug related.

May - Detective Tim Layne investigated the discovery of a female infant, only two to three hours old, found inside a gym bag in the men's restroom at Nicholas County Hospital. The girl, nicknamed Baby Hope, survived. Her parents have not been located.

Nicholas, Grant and Bourbon Counties: November - A pre-dawn, statewide drug round-up netted more than 500 arrests of alleged mid to upper level dealers. Locally, troopers made 29 arrests on 57 charges including a Crittenden mother and son. The boy was charged with foregoing of trafficking in marijuana; the mother with trafficking within 1,000 yards of a school and unlawful transaction with a minor (her son).

Bourbon County: October - Troopers Derek Hall, and Roger G. Smalzer investigated a deadly crash that killed a mother and son. The investigation concluded that falling to wear seatbelts contributed to the death of Nancy and Daniel Johnson, after their vehicle ran off the road and struck a tree.

Harrison County: March - Detective Frank Morris investigated the shooting death of Anna Mann, 40, of Cynthia whose body was found near a trailer home on Wurnal Lane. March - Trooper Steve Owen, assisted by local officers, charged a trip with theft by unlawful taking and receiving stolen property. They recovered $100,000 in stolen property, including two semi-trailers. Federal charges pending.

March - The rural Neandere-Cordova Road, in the northwestern portion of the county, three passengers of a pickup truck were ejected and killed after striking a tree. The vehicle went unspooled for several hours.

April - Twenty-five troopers, assisted by local police, took part in a pre-dawn drug round-up entitled "Operation Spring Cleaning." With warrants in hand, Troopers arrested 22 adults on 28 charges of drug related.

May - Detective Tim Layne investigated the discovery of a female infant, only two to three hours old, found inside a gym bag in the men's restroom at Nicholas County Hospital. The girl, nicknamed Baby Hope, survived. Her parents have not been located.

Nicholas, Grant and Bourbon Counties: November - A pre-dawn, statewide drug round-up netted more than 500 arrests of alleged mid to upper level dealers. Locally, troopers made 29 arrests on 57 charges including a Crittenden mother and son. The boy was charged with foregoing of trafficking in marijuana; the mother with trafficking within 1,000 yards of a school and unlawful transaction with a minor (her son).

Bourbon County: October - Troopers Derek Hall, and Roger G. Smalzer investigated a deadly crash that killed a mother and son. The investigation concluded that falling to wear seatbelts contributed to the death of Nancy and Daniel Johnson, after their vehicle ran off the road and struck a tree.

Harrison County: March - Detective Frank Morris investigated the shooting death of Anna Mann, 40, of Cynthia whose body was found near a trailer home on Wurnal Lane. March - Trooper Steve Owen, assisted by local officers, charged a trip with theft by unlawful taking and receiving stolen property. They recovered $100,000 in stolen property, including two semi-trailers. Federal charges pending.

March - The rural Neandere-Cordova Road, in the northwestern portion of the county, three passengers of a pickup truck were ejected and killed after striking a tree. The vehicle went unspooled for several hours.

April - Twenty-five troopers, assisted by local police, took part in a pre-dawn drug round-up entitled "Operation Spring Cleaning." With warrants in hand, Troopers arrested 22 adults on 28 charges of drug related.

May - Detective Tim Layne investigated the discovery of a female infant, only two to three hours old, found inside a gym bag in the men's restroom at Nicholas County Hospital. The girl, nicknamed Baby Hope, survived. Her parents have not been located.

Nicholas, Grant and Bourbon Counties: November - A pre-dawn, statewide drug round-up netted more than 500 arrests of alleged mid to upper level dealers. Locally, troopers made 29 arrests on 57 charges including a Crittenden mother and son. The boy was charged with foregoing of trafficking in marijuana; the mother with trafficking within 1,000 yards of a school and unlawful transaction with a minor (her son).

Bourbon County: October - Troopers Derek Hall, and Roger G. Smalzer investigated a deadly crash that killed a mother and son. The investigation concluded that falling to wear seatbelts contributed to the death of Nancy and Daniel Johnson, after their vehicle ran off the road and struck a tree.

Harrison County: March - Detective Frank Morris investigated the shooting death of Anna Mann, 40, of Cynthia whose body was found near a trailer home on Wurnal Lane. March - Trooper Steve Owen, assisted by local officers, charged a trip with theft by unlawful taking and receiving stolen property. They re-

BUTCH AND DOUGIE BY ALEX HOWELL

THE SPATS BY JEFF PICKERING

BRINGING UP FATHER

MAMA'S BOYZ BY JERRY CRAFT

POPYE

Henry

Flash Gordon

PHANTOM

WONKA

MAGIC MAZE

R.F.D. BY MIKE MARLAND

GEORGE BY MARK SZORADY

OUT ON A LIMB BY GARY KOPERVAS

MAMA'S BOYZ BY JERRY CRAFT

PHANTOM

WONKA

MAGIC MAZE

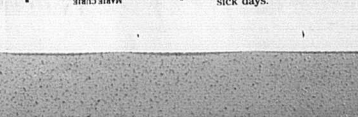

MARIE CURIE

HOCUS-FOCUS

MAGIC MAZE

Laundry under construction

ACI Laundry, Cynthiana, is under reconstruction. Building owner Clay Hunt said Tuesday that weather had delayed the work, but it may be done within a month. He says the building will be the same size as before the October fire with perhaps more washing machines and two tanning beds.

Eighth grade winners

Nicholas County Elementary School students Roy Hawkins, Jason Dotson and Steven Minton placed in Special Olympics last week.

Notice is hereby given pursuant to KRS 396.425 that the following Settlements will be by order of the court on the 14th day of February, 1997, at which time a hearing will be held in Nicholas District Court when said Settlements shall be approved and recorded unless prior thereto exceptions have been filed.

Table with columns: Defendant, Plaintiff, Co-Defendant, Co-Plaintiff, Trial Settlement, Final Settlement.

Witness my hand this 3rd day of February, 1997.

Nelly Watkins, Nicholas Circuit Clerk

Advertisement for Colliver Furniture featuring 'Biggest Mattress Sale Ever!!' with prices for Serta mattresses and contact information for Colliver Furniture.

Large advertisement for 'Colliver Furniture' featuring a grid of comic strips and a word search puzzle.