be adopted by May 15.

Throughout the meeting, new board member and newly elected vice chair Donna Gail Mattox asked Superintendent Everly questions about how to read the tentative draft budget handed to the board. Everly was assisted by Treasurer Faye Robinson. Mattox asked Everly if a budget committee had studied the budget to help advise the board. "It's just that we haven't had time to have a meeting yet," he answered.

"I think it'll take awhile to get it where it needs to be and if we see a problem we try to make an amendment when we can."

Treasurer

The meeting was much like a classroom learning situation for the board members as they asked Everly questions about various expenditures. Some seem surprised that the district spent $65,000 a year for textbooks and that the state only reimburses each elementary student $35 for textbooks while there's no allotment given for high school level textbooks.

Everly stressed that the tentative draft budget shown included figures estimated as nearly as possible, using last year's figures as a base. However, the state hasn't yet announced it's allotment, so figures aren't correct.

In addition, it's too soon for all the groups within the district to come up with final figures for their needs - "Everybody was trying to get their funds extended into this budget today," he said.

Furthermore, payment from utilities taxes and other revenue sources aren't totalled yet. At one point, Everly noted the cable company had been in bankruptcy so he didn't know if the board had received its share of that revenue. "We'll check it out," he stated to the board.

As for the utility monies, he said it depended on the weather - that the cold weather of 1995 and hot summer naturally provided the district more funding.

Robinson commented of the budget, "I think it'll take a while to get it where it needs to be and if we see a problem we try to make an amendment when we can."

In other action, the board approved a change order so the high school could accept an additional $11,000 from the state to repair exterior doors and gym windows at Nicholas County High School.

County Center in eight years.

The jailer also said the escape was a surprise because English was the Social Service Aide/Jury worker. "He'd been on work release for three months when he left the station. He was a real good cleaner."

The inmate had been on cleaning detail for about 10 days prior to his escape.

Anyone with information about his location is asked to call the Paris Police at 987-2100 or the jail at 987-2137.
