

Best Copy Available

Next week visit the By-Gone Days with our Saltwell News Columnist Lelia Hollar

Johnson Mather

and Dr. Raab

Flood victim Wavel Fryman has a visitor Page 10

MAR 13 1997

THE CARLISLE MERCURY

SERVING NICHOLAS COUNTY SINCE 1867 131st Year, No. 11 Carlisle, KY 40311-0272 Thursday, March 13, 1997 50¢ per copy

Youth killed in accident

By Leigh Stone Managing Editor The Carlisle community mourned the death of 14-year-old Christopher Lee Dunn Tuesday at the Assembly of God Church...

to determine if alcohol or drugs were involved. A nearby resident said he heard a dog bark at approximately 3 a.m. but couldn't see anything out of the ordinary. Jones said Dunn's body was discovered by Carlisle Police Officer Terry Fryman at about 7 a.m. as the officer was going home...

CHRISTOPHER DUNN "Chris was a good kid in class and made all of our days brighter" Jack Massie NCE 808 grade teacher Fourteen-year-old Christopher Lee Dunn of Carlisle was killed during the weekend when the pickup truck he was driving went over an embankment off Concord Road. The Kentucky State Police are still investigating. Dunn was an eighth grader at Nicholas County Elementary School.

-In Brief- Get Help

Flood victims needing food, shelter and clothing can contact the American Red Cross by calling Mark Hughes at 289-7226 or Disaster Emergency Services Director Gene Reilly at 289-3713.

4-H Talk Meet

The 4-H Talk Meet scheduled for March 4 was postponed because of the flood. The new date is 6:30 p.m. Tuesday, March 18 at Nicholas County Elementary School.

Flood Relief

Dana Price, secretary to Nicholas County Judge Executive Chuck Smith, said the community drop-off for flood victims is still in operation this week. Thanks to volunteers, Price said more volunteers are needed to man the drop-off between 8 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Road dispute finally over

Wilson, each equally billed $271. Hensley said he's been looking for fair treatment for months and as he left Fiscal Court yesterday, he announced 'I'll see you (magistrate) upstairs' (in court). He wasn't going to pay half while the others divided.

at the conclusion of the meeting was met with 'yes' votes from the two men and a 'yes' vote from Nicholas County Judge Chuck Smith with 'no' votes from Magistrate Danny Hughes and Juanita Smith. Magistrate Melvin Fryman was unable to attend due to illness. He is at a Lexington hospital for treatment.

Avery Thornsbury Magistrate

Stacy explained his attitude as the three-hour meeting came to a close by stating he'd talked with his father, a man near Hensley's age, and his father thought perhaps Hensley wasn't getting a fair deal, either. And, as Stacy pointed out, the haul fee is $218 about twice a year.

Stacy explained his attitude as the three-hour meeting came to a close by stating he'd talked with his father, a man near Hensley's age, and his father thought perhaps Hensley wasn't getting a fair deal, either. And, as Stacy pointed out, the haul fee is $218 about twice a year.

County approves senior budget

Numbers could change By Leigh Stone Managing Editor Shirley Vice, director of Nicholas County Senior Citizens was successful in her mission to get magistrates to approve her tentative annual budget.

But there was considerable discussion before Magistrate Darryl Stacy made the motion with a second by Magistrate

Baessler tours flooded areas

By Leigh Stone Managing Editor Congresswoman Scotty Baessler's efforts to tour Nicholas County and convey the level of devastation to federal officials may have paid off.

Nicholas County Judge Executive Chuck Smith said following Tuesday's regular meeting of Fiscal Court Baessler's visit to the county Saturday may have contributed to an article in Sunday's Lex-

Lisa Herrington, Christi Flora, Shivon Workman, Angie Hayes and Tryna Tinecher

Students of the Week

This week's Students of the Week are Nicholas County High School students being recognized for helping with flood relief in Nicholas County. Paula Hunter, school secretary, said Lisa Herrington, Christi Flora, Shivon Workman, Angie Hayes and Tryna Tinecher worked together under the supervision of Assistant Principal Ron Baker to gather boxes of non-perishable food items and clothing at all home rooms for students to leave items to help all flood victims.

Also the students made blue ribbons which they are currently selling for $1 a piece with all proceeds to help the students in need. 'They just volunteered to do this and they'll be continuing this all week,' Hunter said. The Carlisle Mercury will profile one student each week, chosen by the faculty of their respective school. Watch this space in future issues.