

Johnson Mathers welcomes Dr. Rinaldini to full-time practice

Office located here this summer

Johnson Mathers Health Care Inc. has finalized an agreement with an internal medicine physician to locate a full-time office practice in Nicholas County starting this summer.

Dr. Rinaldini made the agreement official in a contract signing ceremony held in the conference room at Johnson Mathers Health Care Friday morning.

Dr. Rinaldini completed a residency in internal medicine at the University of Kentucky Chandler Medical Center in 1995 and will be finishing a fellowship in Geriatrics through the spring at the University of Kentucky. She lived most of her life in Argentina, but is actually a native of England. She lived in London until the age of six, her parents moved to Argentina and it was in that country where she was raised.

Those who participated in the recruitment of Dr. Rinaldini to this area are very happy...

Health Care Inc., citizens of Nicholas County, and through the resources of the University of Kentucky Medical Placement Services.

Bringing Dr. Rinaldini to Nicholas County was the culmination of a cooperative effort between Johnson Mathers

Dr. Regina Raab to accept patients March 21

On Friday afternoon, March 21, Neurologist Regina Raab, M.D., will begin accepting patients for a specialty clinic at Johnson Mathers Health Care Inc.

Dr. Raab's neurology clinic will address disorders and injuries to the central nervous system. They treat such disorders as persistent migraines as well as other forms of headaches, dizziness, vertigo, memory loss, multiple sclerosis, pain due to nerve diseases, chronic back pain, and many other related types of problems.

The clinic will involve diagnosis and treatment of these problems either at JMHCC or her Bourbon County Office, depending on the specific needs of the patient.

"I have enjoyed a good working relationship with the local physicians in Nicholas County."

Dr. Raab has husband and three children, have owned a horse farm in Bourbon County since 1989. Before establishing her office practice in the area, Dr. Raab was Chief of Neurology at Irvin-Camp Hospital in Fort Knox, Ky. She served from 1990 through 1994, achieving the rank of major.

She received her undergraduate degree from Loyola University and her M.D. from Northwestern University. She completed her residency at Northwestern University Hospitals.

Dr. Raab will operate her clinic one day per month. She will increase her clinic days in Carle as the practice grows. For an appointment, call 696-289-7181.
