

Everly answers teacher concerns

By Leigh Stone Managing Editor Teachers had at least a dozen questions for Nicholas County School Superintendent Randy Everly on an impromptu news conference Monday night as they walked from their schools to the board office.

"I like Nicholas County. I like being here with these people. But I'm looking for another job - everywhere!" Travis Huber NCHS teacher

Huber came up with the questions during his planning time Monday by asking fellow teachers what their concerns were. Everly said Huber called him Monday afternoon and said he had questions. Everly said he was glad to answer questions at any time. But when the camera crew showed up, Everly admitted he was reluctant to speak. "I didn't want it to become a turkey about me talking with someone in a shouting match."

Huber said Monday afternoon's joint to the board office was a very busy day. He said he would consider current teachers for positions and in a conversation to help him understand the situation in his area of certification.

Everly said Tuesday afternoon he would inform teachers of the results of the board meeting. He said he would consider current teachers for positions and in a conversation to help him understand the situation in his area of certification.

Barbara Kingolver, originally from Carlisle, is a well-known author and will be highlighted in a KET program for program guide call 1-800-945-9167.

Signature Barbara Kingolver, a KET production Kentucky native and Tony-winning playwright/director Project, is produced and written by Guy Mendes, Nancy Carpenter is executive producer and Charles Heston, associate producer. The program is closed-captioned for the deaf and hard-of-hearing.

On Hwy 32 Between Florence and Morehead Across Covered Bridge

School Board not in charge of hiring/firing

By Leigh Stone Managing Editor School board isn't in charge of hiring and firing school staff. The superintendent has that responsibility.

Former Nicholas County school Superintendent and current school board member Don Elder agrees with current superintendent Randy Everly and Clifton Bird of the Kentucky Education Association that superintendents are in charge of hiring and firing of school district personnel.

Elder said he was not in charge of hiring and firing school staff. He said he was not in charge of hiring and firing school staff. He said he was not in charge of hiring and firing school staff.

Letters of resignation or termination were mailed by Everly Friday, April 25, to all teachers and classified staff. Everly said all teachers were sent a letter telling them of a reassignment/termination. If I didn't send them a letter they would automatically terminate themselves here (last night) April 30.

Everly said Tuesday afternoon he would inform teachers of the results of the board meeting. He said he would consider current teachers for positions and in a conversation to help him understand the situation in his area of certification.

Signature Barbara Kingolver, a KET production Kentucky native and Tony-winning playwright/director Project, is produced and written by Guy Mendes, Nancy Carpenter is executive producer and Charles Heston, associate producer. The program is closed-captioned for the deaf and hard-of-hearing.

On Hwy 32 Between Florence and Morehead Across Covered Bridge

OPENING WEEKEND 2 NIGHT SHOW May 2, 1997 - FRIDAY May 3, 1997 - SATURDAY

Conservation essay & poster contest winners announced

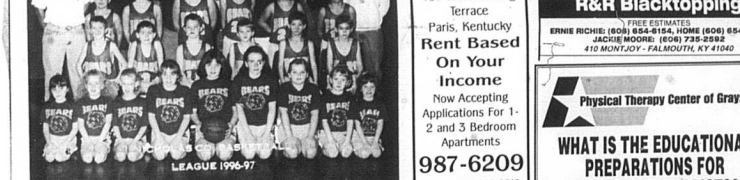

Lowell Hollar and Greg Field present awards to high school essay contest winners Rachel Ector and Stanley Alexander.

Lowell Hollar presents Ashley McFarland and Stanley Alexander with awards for the poster contest.

Lowell Hollar presents awards to poster contest winner (4-T) Troy Byrd and Stanley Alexander.

Melody Herrington was the winner of one of the elementary school level poster contests.

Awards presented to 16 Nicholas students

By Evelyn Hammons Certificates of Awards were presented by Lowell Hollar and Stanley Alexander to the winners of the 1997 Conservation Essay and Poster Contest. The contest is sponsored by the Kentucky Association of Conservation Districts, the Kentucky Department of Education and the Louisville Courier-Journal.

First place winner in the poster contest was Nicholas County Elementary was Troy Byrd, age 11, and David Clappell received the 1996 Jim Clappell Essay Contest Certificate of Merit and a $200 U.S. Savings Bond from The Courier-Journal. He also received a T-shirt, ribbon, and a Certificate of Award from the Nicholas County Conservation District. Amber was presented with a T-shirt, ribbon, and a Certificate of Award from the Nicholas County Conservation District. Amber was presented with a T-shirt, ribbon, and a Certificate of Award from the Nicholas County Conservation District.

Physical therapists are college graduates with such prerequisite classes as psychology, biology, physics, statistics, chemistry, English, professional writing and humanities. Once they have completed a well-rounded basic college education, it's time for them to apply to an accredited physical therapy program of their choice.

WHAT IS THE EDUCATIONAL PREPARATION FOR PHYSICAL THERAPISTS?

This is not a question answered easily or correctly by most individuals in today's society. Physical therapists are college graduates with such prerequisite classes as psychology, biology, physics, statistics, chemistry, English, professional writing and humanities. Once they have completed a well-rounded basic college education, it's time for them to apply to an accredited physical therapy program of their choice.

Depending upon the school and the level of education of the program, the new graduate will receive a Bachelor's Degree or a Master's Degree in physical therapy. The opportunity is open to the student to continue their education and obtain a PhD in physical therapy.

Call One of our convenient locations for an appointment: 125 N. Main St., 125 N. Main St., 125 N. Main St.

Bears See Victory in 1997

The Bears ballteam, cheerleaders, coaches and sponsors recently got together for a victory photo. The Bears took second place season and first place tournament for 1997. The cheerleaders first in the cheerleading competition. The referees and cheerleading sponsors voted the Bears ballteam and cheerleaders' sportsmanship awards for 1997.

FISH FOR STOCKING

Notice is hereby given to all residents pursuant to RES 424-340 that the Nicholas District Court has appointed personal representatives as follows:

Resident: William Child Dixon 2203 Upper Lock Rd. Carlisle, KY. Resentant: William R. Workman 2203 Upper Lock Rd. Carlisle, KY. Resentant: Katherine Meyer Roundtree 209 Sycamore Extn. Carlisle, KY.

"Blacktopping" AND "SEALING"

FREE ESTIMATES Driveways Parking Streets Sidewalks Stairs

ERNE RICHEL (801) 854-8184 HOME (854) 854-8747 JACQUE MORRE (808) 738-2882 419 MONROE / FALMOUTH, KY 41042

Physical Therapy Center of Grayson

Physical therapists are college graduates with such prerequisite classes as psychology, biology, physics, statistics, chemistry, English, professional writing and humanities. Once they have completed a well-rounded basic college education, it's time for them to apply to an accredited physical therapy program of their choice.

Depending upon the school and the level of education of the program, the new graduate will receive a Bachelor's Degree or a Master's Degree in physical therapy. The opportunity is open to the student to continue their education and obtain a PhD in physical therapy.

Call One of our convenient locations for an appointment: 125 N. Main St., 125 N. Main St., 125 N. Main St.

Best Copy Available