Cassinda & Doug Bechanan

Sparrow-Bechanan

Cassinda Michelle Sparrow and Douglas Allan Bechanan were united in marriage on June 21, 1997 at 6:00 P.M. at the Lexington Avenue Baptist Church in Danville, Kentucky.

Mr. Bechanan is the son of James and Anna Bechanan of Elizabethtown, Kentucky and the late Mr. and Mrs. Lucian Bechanan of Elizabethtown, and the late Mr. and Mrs. Ira Bennett of Elizabethtown.

Organist Lois Balzer played selections prior to the ceremony. Special music included "The Gift of Love" Paige Weeks, Vocalist, "In This Very Room" Johnathan Vandover, Vocalist, "Ave Maria" Boyd Robertson, Violinist, Jane Robertson, Pianist, "Trumpet Voluntary" John Christopher Trompeter.

The bride's bouquet was of white Rubrum Lilies, Freesia, Dendrobium Orchids and white roses.

Mrs. Sparrow chose for her daughters wedding a floor length dress of mocha color, accented with silk lace at the bodice with a long straight gown of silk satin accented with satuche and pearls with detachable chapel length train and wrist length gloves.

The bride is a graduate of the University of Kentucky College of Agriculture with a double major in Agriculture and Communication. She is pursuing a master's degree in Agriculture Education. She is a member of Alpha Gamma Delta Sorority and is employed by Johnson-Walkers Health Care, Inc. in Carlisle, Kentucky as Director of Customer Services.

The groom is a graduate of the University of Kentucky College of Agriculture, receiving a B.S. and Master's degrees and is employed by the Nicholas County Board of Education. After a trip to Bermuda, the couple are making their home in Carlisle, KY.
