Pastor's Pen

A Prayer For Children

Introduction by Rev. Charlotte Postacher, Carlsle Presbyterian Church

Since last Tuesday, my prayers kept turning toward that school yard in Jonesboro, Arkansas. One again it is clear to me that other people's children are my children as well. I have a child less too young, we feel the pain and injustice of it. And if a child is violently taken to others, we feel the terrible loss.

Support groups could be harmful to your health

Hegelson said that it was uncertain whether the women's relationships were actually affected by the support groups.

The study conducted by Hegelson looked at 312 women who were involved in chemotherapy treatments.
