Patti Wente, representative for the Nicholas County Clean Community Campaign, presented two high school students with their awards after winning the Clean Community Campaign Logo contest on Monday, March 30, at the school during Elizabeth Johnson's 4th period Art 1 class.

Brandon Jones won first place and received a $50 gift certificate for Hardy's Ashland Oil, donated by Hardy's and the Clean Community Campaign.

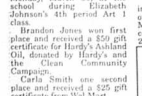
Carla Smith one second place and received a $25 gift certificate from Wal-Mart.

The winning logos will be displayed in Carlisle, along with other logos from participating students.

The entries were hung in the cafeteria of the Johnson-Mathers Health Care center for 5 days and judged by the employees of the hospital.

This is the second annual Nicholas County Clean Community Campaign and is sponsored by the CLAD Baptist Church.

Wente encourages everyone in the community to be a part of the campaign which started Monday, March 30, and will continue until Saturday, April 25.



Half the labor force will be over 40 by the year 2005.

Students of the Week

Ursha Mitchell

By Amy Rankin
Managing Editor

Ursha Mitchell, 17, a Nicholas County High School Senior, has been chosen for Student of the Week.

Ursha is the daughter of Mike and Vicky Mitchell and big sister to Corey, her ten-year- old brother.

Some of her extracurricular activities include band, varsity cheerleading, and the tennis team.

Ursha is also interested in cooking, hanging out with friends, and, of course, boys.

After high school, she plans to attend college and major in Interior Design.

Ursha's favorite subject who nominated her, describes her as having "a very congenial personality."

She is considered to be a "good student who works very hard," according to Bow.

Ursha's teacher also states that "she) is already an excellent caterer. I am very proud of her accomplishment."

Sarah Clay

By Amy Rankin
Managing Editor

Sarah Clay, 17, a Nicholas County High School Senior, has been chosen Student of the Week.

Sarah is the daughter of Randle and Basha Clay.

She is a member of the tennis team, the Kentucky Youth Assembly and the Kentucky United Nations Assembly.

Over the summer, Sarah attended the Governor's Scholar Program for 5 weeks on the campus of Northern Kentucky University.

She describes the experience as the "opportunity of a lifetime."

Although she has not decided a major, Sarah plans to attend the University of Kentucky after high school.

Roxanne Bow nominated Sarah for Student of the Week because she "excels in both academics and extracurricular activities."

"Sarah has kept an "A" average although she is very active in sports and clubs," Bow stated.

School violence is becoming an issue of serious concern

Robert Griffen, a junior at Bowling Green High School, worries that violence in schools is becoming uncontrollable.

"It worries me to see the down-fall of a society with great morals. It really perturbs me that these violent acts can go on in American schools," Griffen stated.

A group of 70 high school students attended the Kentucky High School Journalism Association State Convention at the Radison Plaza in Lexington Friday, March 27, to question state educators about the measures being taken to secure schools from attacks like the ones in Jonesboro, Ark. and West Paducah, Ky.

Jamie Morton, Paul, director of communications for the Kentucky Education Association, said, "This topic could not be more timely. The issue of school safety and discipline is the number one issue on teachers' minds today."

Legal counsel for the Secretary of the Cabinet, Jack Conway, states that House Bill 330 will be beneficial to the problem.

This bill passed by unanimous vote in the state Senate Thursday, March 26, allows for the creation of a safety center for the state which would provide training as well as resources for school districts and grants for alternative schooling.

Director of student support services for the Kentucky School Boards Association, Bill Scott, says that under the bill, teachers would be provided with better training on warning signs, meetings between the Department of Social Services and schools would be promoted and funding for family counseling, anger management and conflict resolution would be made available.

"We're seeing an increase in the amount of reports of delinquency-of disturbing behavior," Scott stated.

He included that the best way to prevent violence in schools is to prevent the problems that cause violence.

The average daily increase in the world's population is 182 per minute.
