Student of the Week

Jessica Campbell

By Amy Hankin Managing Editor

After high school, Jessica plans to attend Marshall State University where she will be pre-vet and attend vet school.

Roxanne Bow nominated Jessica for Student of the Week because she puts forth much effort not only in her studies, but extracurricular activities.

Some of her extracurricular activities include being a member of the yearbook staff and serving as committee chairperson for FFA.

Jessica enjoys riding and serving her horses and works part-time at the Bedford Hill Vet Hospital in Paris.

Jessica is a member of the National Junior Honors Society and the National Honor Society.

Band receives honor

The Nicholas County High School band recently visited Frankfurt to receive special recognition from the General Assembly and Governor Paul D. Patton.

National Junior Honors Society recently visited Washington, D.C.

Students in the Society also toured the Whitehouse, Capitol, Arlington Cemetery and the Smithsonian Institution.

In addition, the students were permitted to buy souvenirs at the Hard Rock Cafe and Planet Hollywood.

Leon said that the students took part in a tour group and was able to see so many of the wonderful things the State Capitol has to offer.

Both Hamilton and Leon said they had a wonderful time and would love to visit again someday.

Two high school students chosen for Governor's Scholar Program

By Amy Hankin Managing Editor

Two students of Nicholas County High School have been chosen to attend the Governor's Scholar Program for five weeks this summer.

Kyle Galbraith and Katie Hopkins, the two students, had to be nominated and participate in a number of activities to create for the trip.

Hopkins included that students will also be permitted to attend a number of field trips during the summer session.

The two students say they are looking forward to the time to create for the trip.

Nicholas County High School juniors participate in KHSIS test pep rally

By Amy Hankin Managing Editor

To help encourage the students who were scheduled to participate in KHSIS testing, Eaton made special posters to say thank you and offer words of confidence.

Students were also treated to a poetry reading and joined in singing a song about testing well.

The juniors were then encouraged to gather on the gym floor and participate in various relay events, such as basketball shooting from the free line.

KHSIS testing for juniors at Nicholas County High School was scheduled for Tuesday, April 21 through Thursday, April 30.

Eaton received a standing ovation from the students and teachers as she walked onto the gym floor.

Nicholas County High School student wins two distinguished academic honors

The United States Achievement Academy has announced that Martha Yazzell of Carlinville has been named a United States National Award Winner in English.

This award is a prestigious honor given to students who excel in their studies and demonstrate exceptional leadership qualities.

In fact, the Academy recognizes fewer than 10% of all American high school students.

Yazzell who attends Nicholas County High School, was named the national award winner in English.

Yazzell will appear in the United States Achievement Academy Official Yearbook, which is published nationwide.

Recognizing and supporting our youth is a major priority of the United States Achievement Academy.

Yazzell is the daughter of Mark and Gloria Yazzell of Carlinville and the granddaughter of Brian Mann and the late Harold Mann of Carlinville and Kenneth and Roseanna of Carlinville.
