Twenty Years Ago

Mrs. Gimes Caywood of North Street, Carlisle, will probably always remember the winter of 1978. While many people grumbled and complained, she channeled her free time into the construction and design of an award winning home.

When asked what she thought of her responsibilities as a volunteer, Angela said, "I like it a lot. She included that the work was made more fulfilling when they're more down here. They really appreciate what you do and they show it. Angela also said that her mother, Gayk Craig, has supported her efforts in both volunteer and working towards for GED by providing child care for her.

She is currently working on obtaining her GED and enjoying spending time with her three-year-old son, Jessy Lee Craig. Angela says that in time, she may decide to work in a nursing home and continue on with duties she has come to enjoy by volunteering at the Center.

Donna and Larry Brooks will celebrate their 25th anniversary on May 1, 1973. The couple were married on May 1, 1973 at the United Methodist Church in Carlisle. The Brooks' have one son, Brian, a daughter and son-in-law, Kristin and Ray Oberler. Their three grandchildren are Abigail, Nicholas and Jeffrey. All family and friends are invited to attend.

Dear Friends,
I thank God for the Bible. It is the only book ever written whose author is present every time it is read. It has been compared to a road map, for it gives the direction on how to live both here and hereafter. Although the last book of the Bible was written about 2000 years ago, it is still just as relevant today as when it was written.
