

Rep. Jim Lovell, D-Parris, and Rep. Kathy Stein, D-Leighton, discuss legislation facing the House of Representatives during the end of the first month of the 198 Kentucky County Assembly legislative session. Lawmakers are expected to consider more than 1,000 pieces of legislation during the regular session, which began Jan. 6 and runs through April 16. Lovell represents Kentucky's 22nd House District which includes Bath, Bourbon, Fayette and Nicholas counties. Stein represents the 75th district in Fayette County.

Letters to the editor

Dear Editor: I read the local papers and I did my papers. I noticed how many people have filed for public office. Seemingly, people are ready for a change and are ready to try to do something about it. I am not running for office as I feel I can't say this without fear of someone saying "Oh, they're just trying to get votes."

Money allocated for DES funding

The final Parris plan for $500,000 in his state budget will go to support the DES operations across the Commonwealth. Patricia, the first governor to increase this appropriation...
