Traci Slone and Timothy Letcher

Slone-Letcher vows spoken

Traci Shawn Slone of Clearfield and Timothy Allen Letcher of Cynthiana were married Jan. 3, at the First Baptist Church in Morehead.

The bride wore a white, sleeveless gown with long opera gloves and was escorted by her uncle, David Johnson.

Jennifer Whordley of Pittsburgh, Pa., served as maid of honor. Other bridesmaids were Nina Beimesch, Kristen Pass Collins, Shannon Convery, Kimberly Jaeger Hale and Le Anne Sanders Haney. Samantha Robinson, cousin of the bride, served as flower girl.

The bridesmaids wore burgundy, sleeveless gowns with a velvet bodice and shawl.

The groom wore a traditional black tuxedo with a patterned silver, gold and white vest.

Kevin Letcher, brother of the groom and a resident of Cynthiana, served as best man. Other groomsmen were Jim Ed Brown, Kelly Cox, John Dawson, Mike Shrout and Chris Snopek. Daniel Broderick, cousin of the groom, served as ring bearer.

Other members of the wedding party were: Megan Toler, candlelighter, Sarah Smoot and Courtney Law, program attendants. Mindy Highley was the wedding coordinator. Jay Flippin, Sherri Bishop and Shannon Convery provided music for the ceremony.

Parents of the bride and groom are Karen J. Slone of Clearfield and Jim and Judy Letcher of Cynthiana.

Grandparents of the bride and groom are Roxie Johnson of Morehead, O.G. (Rusty) and Esther Brunker of Cynthiana, Eugene and Ruby Letcher of Carlisle and Geneva Mitchell of Carlisle.

Sanford and Jolene Bentley of Clearfield are godparents of the bride.

After a honeymoon trip to California and a cruise to Baja, Mexico, the couple is residing in Paris. The bride is a part-time faculty member at Lexington Community College and the groom is the marketing communications coordinator at E.D. Bullard Company.

Tennessee Williams play at MSU

Theatre goers will glimpse life at a rundown Mexican resort when Morehead State University theatre students present Tennessee Williams play "The Night of the Iguana" on the campus. The production runs Tuesday through Sunday, Feb. 24-March 1, in Kibbey Theatre. Show time is 8 p.m. nightly with a 2 p.m. matinee on Sunday. Appearing in the production are, from left, Elizabeth Harris, Olive Hill graduate student, as Hannah; Derrick Moore, (seated) Bulan sophomore, as Nonu; Brian Phillips, Nicholasville senior, as the Rev. T.L. Shannon and Francie Rose, Paintsville senior, as Maxine Faulk. Because of limited seating, reservations are necessary.

Sunnyside Homemakers met recently

The Sunnyside Homemakers met on Tuesday, February 17, 1998 at the home of Louise Carbert. Louise gave the devotional reading Psalm, the 29th Chapter. Phyllis Brady read "Where Is God" and also led in prayer. Eleanor Bramel read the minutes of the last meeting. Five members answered roll call by naming someone who won't be remembered for Valentine's Day. We had one visitor, Mrs. Puckett.

Conservation board to meet

The Nicholas County Conservation District Board of Supervisors will meet Wednesday night, March 4, at 7:00 P.M. at the Old Armory in Carlisle.

MSU expects spring enrollment upswing

Morehead State University showed a slight dip in its preliminary spring enrollment figures — but university officials are confident the final numbers will actually show an increase over last year.

The preliminary report, discussed at the MSU regents meeting on Friday at the Adron Doran University Center (ADUC), showed a head count enrollment of 7,715 for the spring 1998 semester, about 0.4 percent less than the spring 1997 enrollment of 7,748.

But Dr. Michael Moore, MSU executive vice president for academic affairs, said the university should see a slight increase over last year when final figures are in.

Moore also said MSU's regional centers have increased enrollment, and that freshman retention is up this spring, up 3 percent to 85 percent.

MSU President Ronald Eaglin lauded recruitment and retention strategies developed by Moore. "It really looks like it's a team effort," Eaglin said.

Eaglin said that in addition to increasing enrollment, the strategies could also generate "enrichment" for MSU among freshmen, which will stem the numbers of upperclassmen leaving to graduate at other schools.

Homemaker News

The treasurer's report was given, Lavina McFarland read a good poem "Just Yesterday". Phyllis Brady read her report. Grace was sung before a nice lunch. Eleanor Bramel gave the lesson on "Spice Up Your Meals with Mexican Flavors" True Mexican cooking bears little resemblance to what is found in Mexican restaurants in America. At our last meeting we had some Mexican dishes for lunch. At the end of our lesson today Eleanor made a Mexican fudge chocolate. Today we read a Thank You note from Lavina McFarland. Our sympathy is extended to Lavina in the loss of her brother. And we welcomed Mrs. Mae Gillespie who is ill. Lavina gave us copies of several Mexican Recipes. Phyllis Brady showed a couple of small crafts. Phyllis had a game won by Lavina. The next meeting will be at the home of Ida Mae Willoughby in Paris on March 17. Phyllis Brady will give the lesson on "Diabetes" Valentine's Day on Feb. 19 at the extension office being taught by Cheryl Case, who is Harrison Co. Agent.
