

Major Roy Berwick named MMI president as Brigadier General James Vickers retires

Brigadier General James M. Vickers, president of the Military Academy, announced today he will resign as MMI president effective July 1, 1969. Major Roy Berwick, a retired Army lieutenant colonel, has been named MMI president and headmaster of the Military Academy.

The new officer has new duties as MMI president since August 1, 1969. Major Berwick is now in MA.

He has been the vice president and commander of the Academy since June 1, 1967. In fact, it came to MMI that the understanding that he would succeed General Vickers as headmaster of the Academy.

Major Berwick has been in MA for several years. He is a graduate of the West Point and the Army Staff School at Fort Monmouth, N.J. He has a BA in History from the University of Maryland and a MA from the University of Maryland at College Park. He has been a member of the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society, the Army Club and the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society.

Major Berwick has been a member of the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society, the Army Club and the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society. He has a BA in History from the University of Maryland and a MA from the University of Maryland at College Park.

Major Berwick has been a member of the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society, the Army Club and the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society. He has a BA in History from the University of Maryland and a MA from the University of Maryland at College Park.

Letters to the Editor

There's much to be thankful for

Dear Editor:

In reading on the old year-end retrospectives it has been a pleasure to see the many good things that have been accomplished in the city of Carlisle, Pennsylvania. It is a shame that the city is not better known than it is. I am sure that if the city were better known, it would be a better place to live in. I am sure that if the city were better known, it would be a better place to live in. I am sure that if the city were better known, it would be a better place to live in.

"Our high school band again made us proud with their state competition"

Dear Editor:

The expansion of the county road system and city center has been a great help to the city of Carlisle. It is a shame that the city is not better known than it is. I am sure that if the city were better known, it would be a better place to live in. I am sure that if the city were better known, it would be a better place to live in. I am sure that if the city were better known, it would be a better place to live in.

Carlisle/Flemingsburg look at grant application

By Leigh Rouse

The Carlisle/Flemingsburg area is looking at a grant application for a highway interchange. The grant would be used to build a new interchange between the roads.

THE CARLISLE MERCURY

Postmaster: Send change of address Form 3479 to:
The Carlisle Mercury, 204 West Front Street, Carlisle, Pa. 17015.
Subscription rates: $3.00 per year in advance. Single copies 10 cents.
Advertising rates: Call for rates.
Copyright © 1969 by Carlisle Mercury, Inc.

NOTICE

CITY residents: that would like to dispose of their live Christmas trees call the City Office at 389-7700 for pickup. Trees can be put in with regular trash.

City of Carlisle, KY

Carlisle resident enters Bluegrass Winter games

Marilyn Sagan, 1221 1/2 North Carlisle, is one of the many participants in the winter games. She is a member of the Carlisle community and is looking forward to the competition.

Marilyn Sagan

Firemen and Mayor

The Carlisle Firemen and Mayor are planning a picnic for the next week. The picnic will be held at the fire station and will include a barbecue and other activities.

Top 10

with two of her sisters, who to 10 years. It is a great day for them, there's no question about it.

The Carlisle Mercury is proud to announce that it has been named one of the Top 10 newspapers in the state. This is a great honor and a testament to the hard work and dedication of the staff and readers.

NOTICE

City residents: that would like to dispose of their live Christmas trees call the City Office at 389-7700 for pickup. Trees can be put in with regular trash.

Firemen and Mayor

The Carlisle Firemen and Mayor are planning a picnic for the next week. The picnic will be held at the fire station and will include a barbecue and other activities.

Jack Conley sent a letter. We've placed. It worked out well.

Conley

Jack Conley has been a great asset to the community. His letter was a great help and we are pleased to place it in the paper. It worked out well and we are grateful for his contribution.

State representative runs for re-election

PHILIP Representative Philip H. Harris is running for re-election to the state legislature. He has served his constituents well and is looking forward to continuing his service.

Mayor

The Mayor is looking for a successor. The search is ongoing and we are looking for a candidate who can lead the city into the future.

Students

The students are looking forward to the new year. They are excited and ready to take on the challenges ahead.

Student of the Week

Student of the Week

This week's Student of the Week is Ryan Hunter. He has been a great example to the other students and we are proud to honor him.

Remember when

Remember when you were a child? It's a great time to look back on the memories that have shaped who we are today.

Remember when

Remember when you were a child? It's a great time to look back on the memories that have shaped who we are today.

Remember when

Remember when you were a child? It's a great time to look back on the memories that have shaped who we are today.

Remember when

Here's an "oldie" do you know who this is and when this photo was taken? Call The Mercury at 389-2488 and let us know!

Farmers need to look at environmental concerns

Farmers are being urged to consider environmental concerns in their daily operations. This is to ensure that the land is protected for future generations.

Students

The students are looking forward to the new year. They are excited and ready to take on the challenges ahead.

Students

The students are looking forward to the new year. They are excited and ready to take on the challenges ahead.

Students

The students are looking forward to the new year. They are excited and ready to take on the challenges ahead.

Student of the Week

Student of the Week

This week's Student of the Week is Ryan Hunter. He has been a great example to the other students and we are proud to honor him.

Remember when

Remember when you were a child? It's a great time to look back on the memories that have shaped who we are today.

Remember when

Remember when you were a child? It's a great time to look back on the memories that have shaped who we are today.

Remember when

Remember when you were a child? It's a great time to look back on the memories that have shaped who we are today.

Remember when

Remember when you were a child? It's a great time to look back on the memories that have shaped who we are today.

Remember when

Remember when you were a child? It's a great time to look back on the memories that have shaped who we are today.

Ryan Hunter

Student of the Week

This week's Student of the Week is Ryan Hunter. He has been a great example to the other students and we are proud to honor him.

Student of the Week

This week's Student of the Week is Ryan Hunter. He has been a great example to the other students and we are proud to honor him.

Student of the Week

This week's Student of the Week is Ryan Hunter. He has been a great example to the other students and we are proud to honor him.

Student of the Week

This week's Student of the Week is Ryan Hunter. He has been a great example to the other students and we are proud to honor him.

Student of the Week

This week's Student of the Week is Ryan Hunter. He has been a great example to the other students and we are proud to honor him.