ED MILLER
STATE SENATE

LETS TALK ABOUT ETHICS
Honest government is a prerequisite for good government, but corrupting influences on our elected officials raises a big concern.
Ed Miller wants to do something about it.
THE PROBLEM
Ed Miller is committed to sharply reducing the influence big money powers have over our legislators. In 1996 the Kentucky General Assembly passed legislation that effectively gutted the 1992 Legislative Ethics Law and literally gave outside influences freedom to wheel and deal as they please.
This was a disservice to all Kentuckians and Ed Miller wants to sharply reduce the influence that big money powers have over our legislative process.
ETHICS REFORM IS NEEDED NOW!
Can we actually make a difference and live up to public expectations?
Ed Miller says YES!
The integrity must be restored to the Legislative Ethics Law along with the power and independence of the Legislative Ethics Commission to enforce the rules of conduct.
If you care about honest government,
Ed Miller will serve your best interests in Frankfort.
VOTE on May 26 and elect
Ed Miller—Senator 30th District
The 30th Kentucky district comprises Bourbon, Bracken, Harrison, Nicholas, Scott and Woodford Counties.
