Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor: When my family and I moved to this area, we were struck by the beauty of the area.

As soon as we were in temporary residence in Lexington, we wrote to both of you, informing you of our move.

There was a note from the mayor explaining that life was still hectic at the present in Lexington.

Following our move to Carlisle, I did get in touch with you about my move.

We announced an "organizational" type meeting May 19, 1998, at the meeting of the KY Chapter of the National Livestock Auctioneers.

Government spokes men about tobacco prices... Governor Patton issued this statement Monday, May 18 after Senator McConnell announced his support for the Luger tobacco buyout.

Senator McConnell would support the elimination of this program without consulting with the other leaders of the commonwealth and the tobacco farming industry.

I will continue to fight for the maintenance of the program along with the other leaders of the tobacco farmer and the farm communities of Kentucky.
