Bicentennial Committee is organized

A Centennial Celebration Committee was organized Aug. 25, 1997, to celebrate the Bicentennial of the City of Carlsle. The committee was organized on Sept. 22 at 7:30 p.m. at the Old Carlsle High School. Some organizations and individuals not represented, but are still invited to the September meeting. The committee decided to hold the Bicentennial celebration on Sept. 26, 1999 as the bicentennial date for the Bicentennial is the 200th Anniversary of legislative action naming Nicholas as a new county. The big celebration for the Bicentennial will take place on Sept. 26, 1999, the 200th anniversary of Nicholas becoming a county, and 200th anniversary of its court meeting on June 2, 1800.
