Christian Kolker to compete in Miss KY Preteen Pageant

Miss Christian Kolker, daughter of Chuck and Christine Kolker, has been accepted as a State Finalist in the Miss Kentucky American Preteen Pageant to be held July 23 at the Hyatt Regency Hotel in Lexington, Ky.

The winner of the Miss Kentucky American Preteen Pageant in each division will receive a cash award of $500, official crown, sash, and $300 in travel expenses to compete in the National Miss American Good Pageant in Orlando, Fla. where thousands of dollars in cash awards, scholarships, and prizes will be awarded.

Each state winner will also receive admission and transportation for two to Disneyworld in Orlando, Fla. This Miss Kentucky American Preteen Pageant is for Tomorrow's Leaders.

It is open to girls between the ages of 8-10 years, with good and drama based on their health, noble, appropriate, scholastic achievement, and American spirit for school, and her performance on stage.

The pageant seeks to help the accomplishments of each girl who enters and helps her set goals for the future. Last year over $1 million in scholarships, cash and awards were presented to deserving winners nationwide.

Cash awards and trophies will also be presented in several separate optional contests such as Talent, Speech, and Poetic. Her hobbies include: baseball, cheerleading and softball.

Miss Kolker is from Danville, Ky. She is currently a student at Nicholas County High School. She is currently a member of the National Honor Society and the National Aeronautics and Space Administration.
