

Bobcat featured on new license plate

The votes have been tallied and the Kentucky Heritage Land Conservation Fund Board (KHLCFB) has announced the bobcat will be the next nature license plate. In January 2000, you will be able to have a bobcat on your car. The bobcat will join two current nature plates: the Kentucky Warbler on a tulip poplar branch and the cardinal on a coffee tree branch.

receive a nutrition analysis of their diet. EFNEP para-professionals combine that analysis with a family's food and nutritional status to either assist parent or dual-parent households. When they enroll, they receive a government cash assistance and food stamps.

"Most people, regardless of income level, lack the knowledge and skill to maximize their food dollars," said Kathy Daly Kozel, state EFNEP coordinator. "The lessons EFNEP teaches apply to everyone."

EFNEP traditionally targets families with small children, county Extension agents, state Extension specialists, para-professionals, and volunteers to serve families in 58 counties. Interest in determining what educational information is appropriate.

They conduct lessons on how to shop more effectively, how to save money, how to safely handle and store food so it doesn't spoil, how to maintain good sanitation, and how to maintain good health by eating a variety of nutritious foods," said Daly Kozel.

Although EFNEP helps families realize direct savings, it also

Sunnyside Homemakers

The Sunnyside Homemakers met on Tuesday, April 20, at the home of Ida Mae Williams in Paris. Ida Mae gave the devotion reading scriptures from mark 10:13-14 and read a poem entitled "Cakes and Creamery" and then asked Phyllis Brady to read a poem.

Roll call was answered by telling our favorite spring activities. The minutes of the last meeting was read by Phyllis Brady. Our guest speaker, Mrs. Kay, our agent, gave announcements. Our country meeting is on April 22 at the Christian Church. Our club's duty is done.

LeVina McFarland had ordered garments for the tables. Our International Buffet study, close ally capers plus, expediting situations. Tickets are $7 for adults, $4 for students age 15-18 and children under 14 are admitted free.
