MSU gearing up for fall with new programs

Morehead State University is gearing up for the fall semester with new programs a degree to be offered totally online and a variety of entertainment and sports-related activities for students' enjoyment.

Registration and business days for the upcoming term will be held on campus Aug. 18-20. All classes, including evening and off-campus, begin on Monday, Aug. 23.

The first classes of the Institute of Regional Analysis and Public Policy (IRAPP), MSU's new program of distinction, are listed in the fall schedule. Dr. David Rudy, dean of IRAPP, will be available to assist students who wish to enter this multi-disciplinary program of study. Options for undergraduate degrees will have an emphasis in environmental science, geography, government, social work and sociology. Graduate programs in environmental regional analysis are available in biology and sociology.

To assist new students in getting off on the right track, the Office of Student Development will host orientation and the department's first meeting Monday, Aug. 16. Among the topics for discussion are financial aid, working on campus, fee paying and activating meal cards. Dr. William K. McMillan, motivational speaker and former college administrator, will discuss stumbling blocks that hinder college success in his "Welcome to the Time of Your Life II" presentation. Also scheduled to speak is Dr. Chris Kilmarin, writer and performer and author of "The Psychology of Psychology" at Mary Washington College in Fredericksburg, Va.

Before the classes begin, students are invited to a street dance and ice-cream social on the plaza in front of the President's Home from 8 to 11 p.m. on Aug. 22. This activity is sponsored by MSU President and Mrs. Ronald G. Gagliardi and the Student Government Association.

A variety of activities, sponsored by SIGA and the Student Activities Council, will welcome students to the campus. On the first day that students can visit residence halls, Aug. 16, a block party will run from 5 to 11 p.m. Other events scheduled for the fall term are a visit from touring artist Ken Shultz and Ken Sprague, "Friday Night at the Movies" at the University's new library, and a student with a valid I.D. car. Hypnotist Tom DeLuca will kick-off the entertainment of Aug. 23 with other entertainers scheduled throughout the semester. Aug. 23, Kibbey theatre, Sept. 28-30, "The Balcony," Burton Auditorium, Dec. 9-11, and "Picasso at the Lapin Agile," Kibbey Theatre in April.

During the academic year, students will be competing in sports teams. MSU's football Eagles will face the

Maysville Community College wraps up

Maysville Community College recently held their seventh annual Summer Scholarship Scramble with hundreds and friends participating. The tournament, held to raise money for scholarships for students attending MCC, has raised over forty-four thousand and five hundred dollars in the past seven years. These scholars allow students the opportunity to pursue a college education that, otherwise, may not have been available.

Several prizes and awards were given out this year. Dee Hinkle, Bob Scheidde, Kevin O'Brien, Kevin Rogers, Monty Rogers, Bill Bruck and Bob Russell made up the winning team. Each member of this team received a cash prize, two University of Kentucky football tickets, a gift certificate from Debra's, as well as championship hats.

The second place team members were Jodi Bertram, Pete Wright, Mike Ashcraft, Al Krantz, A. McFarland, Lisa Turner, Elz Gody and Jerry Babour. The members of this team each received a cash prize and golf balls.

Each member of the third place team received a cash prize and golfers surprise. These team members were Robert Walton, Jerry Pfeiffer, Scott Schroter, Sally Walters, Jamey Hill and Gene Brandel.

Prizes were also given out for certain holes. Eric Schumacher won the Longest Drive for a male on number 1, Sally Whalen won the Longest Drive for a female on number 2, Lisa Turner won Closest to the Pin for a female on number 4, David Omer won Closest to the Pin on number 8, Phil McDonald won the Longest Put for a male on number 12, Jodi Bertram won the Closest to the Pin for a female on number 12, Deanna Joseph won the Most Accurate Drive on number 14, Hoss Sweet won the Longest Put on number 15 and Jerry Joseph won Closest to the Pin on number

Cuisine variety awaits 'Taste 'n' Tunes' guest

The "Taste 'n' Tunes" portion of this year's "Taste 'n' Tunes" event was also put up for auction and Rick and Teresa Huer placed the highest bids on both. Two glass chelongs were auctioned off and Howard Moore was the highest bidder on those. Thanks to Tynes who donated his time to conduct the auction, all five items raised over one hundred dollars to be used toward scholarships.

Over one hundred door prizes were donated by area businesses. "I have learned in just one year at Maysville Community College that Maysville and the surrounding communities are very supportive of
