

FLEMING COUNTY, KENTUCKY SECOND ANNUAL COVERED BRIDGE FESTIVAL

The second annual Fleming County Covered Bridge Festival will be here soon. Folks will be gathering in the community of Goddard on Aug. 28 for the festival which drew over 5,000 people in 1998.

The festival was organized by the Fleming County Tourism Committee to promote the beauty of the three covered bridges in Fleming County.

Organizers also wanted to furnish an opportunity for area crafters and artists to showcase their wares. Over 50 quality craftsmen have been selected to participate this year. A number of heritage demonstrations will be taking place, including a steam powered grist mill, blacksmith, soap making, broom making, weaving, spinning and basket making.

The Ringo Mills Covered Bridge and Grange City Covered Bridge will also be ready for a self guided tour. Guides will be available from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. to assist visitors.

A new concrete bridge has been constructed north of the covered bridge, which will ease traffic congestion in getting in and out of the festival. Visitors to the festival are asked to take the "new concrete bridge" off KY 32 to reach the festival.

The Goddard Covered Bridge will be closed to vehicle traffic the day of the festival so visitors can leisurely walk across the bridge and study its construction.

Mark your calendar and plan on attending the festival on Saturday, from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. Music, food and entertainment will be provided throughout the day.
