Allison Grant wins BellSouth Scholarship

Two Kentucky high school students will receive $2,500 each from the STLP BellSouth Scholarship Program.

The recipients are Allison Grant of Nicholas County High School and Allen Cook of Ohio County High School. Both are members of Kentucky's Technology Leadership Program (STLP).

The scholarship was established by BellSouth in Kentucky to recognize outstanding senior STLP students. One female and one male student were selected from online applications for the

1999 Governor's Scholars

Governor Paul E. Patton announced the 700 outstanding high school juniors who will attend this year's Governor's Scholars Program for five weeks in June and July.

Governor Patton said, "The Governor's Scholars Program is an outstanding educational opportunity for these young people. By participating in the program they will have a unique opportunity to exchange ideas and discover different points of view while interacting with other students and learning new disciplines. My congratulations to these young Kentuckians who have been chosen to share in this exciting program."

Students from public and private schools competed to participate in the program representing 115 of Kentucky's 120 counties. A statewide selection committee chose the participants for the nationally recognized program from nominations submitted from each Kentucky school district. Selection criteria included academic records and tests scores,
