

PEOPLE.....Pg 5
 ON THE RECORD...Pg 7
 CLASSIFIEDS.....Pg 9

Copies available on newsstands around Nicholas County

NOV
 11
 1999

The Carlisle Mercury

PROUD TO BE SERVING NICHOLAS COUNTY SINCE 1867

Vol. 133, No. 45

Thursday, November 11, 1999 - CARLISLE, KY

Briefs

Nicholas County Democratic Women's Club

The Nicholas County Democratic Women's Club will have installation of officers on Monday, November 15, at 6:30 p.m., at the Nicholas County Jail.

Nicholas County Board of Education monthly meeting set

The Nicholas County Board of Education will have its regular monthly meeting on Monday, November 15, at 7:00 p.m., at the Board of Education central office.

Veterans representative to be at courthouse

John Frazier, a Veterans Benefits Field Representative with the Kentucky Department of Veterans Affairs, will be at the Nicholas County Courthouse in Carlisle, on Wednesday, November 17, between the hours of 1:00 p.m. and 3:00 p.m.

This service is free and is provided to veterans and their families.

N.C.H.S. Site Base Council regular monthly meeting

The Nicholas County High School Site Based Council will have its regular monthly meeting on Wednesday, November 17, at 6:00 p.m., at the Nicholas County High School.

American Legion Post 22 to meet

Montgomery Post 22 of The American Legion and the Ladies Auxiliary will meet on Thursday, November 18, at 5:30 p.m., at the Post Home on Winchester Rd., Mt. Sterling. All veterans, and their spouses, from Bath, Clark, Menifee, Montgomery, Nicholas, and Powell counties are invited to attend.

JMHC Auxiliary Christmas Bazaar and Craft Fair

JMHC Ladies Auxiliary will be holding a Christmas Bazaar and Craft Fair on Friday, November 19, at 7:00 a.m. until 4:00 p.m., at the Nicholas County Hospital Lobby.

Obituaries

Deaths, Page 3
 • Junis Gray
 • Howard Cox

Nicholas County Bluejackets and Principal Doug Buchanan proudly lifts up the District 3 Championship Trophy they won during the regular season.

Bluejackets finish season 9-2

When the Nicholas County Bluejackets ran on the field Friday night in the first round of the state championships they were ready for a fight. A fight did Ludlow give them. Ludlow who was defeated earlier in the year by the Bluejackets were prepared and ready for some football.

Hale helps Midway to KIAC tennis runner-up placing

Magan Hale, of Carlisle, Ky., was a finalist in the KIAC conference tennis tournament this past weekend in French Lick, IN. Magan played in the number six singles bracket in a tough three set match against the #1 seed from Lindsey Wilson College. Her runner-up effort help lead the Eagles to a Team Conference runner-up trophy (first in school history). Victories by all players in their brackets during the early rounds of the tournament laid the foundation for the strong finish. Five players advance to the final rounds to secure the team's second place. Midway Finalists also included Brooke Phelps number four Conference Single Champion, Amy McCracken who fell to her IUS opponent 3-6, 3-6. The third doubles team of Angie Cornett and Here Kay Hibbs were overpowered in their finals round by IUS, 6-1, 6-2. IUS, a tennis powerhouse in the conference, captured the tournament with champions in the #1 through #4 single positions and #1 and #2 doubles positions. Coach Hoffman, who was voted KIAC Coach of the Year by the KIAC coaches, commented, "What an outstanding accomplishment by our Midway team. Every player contributed to our results. Hard work during practice, a winning season (10-5), and stamina and court intelligence lead to the team's accomplishments. I am very proud of the team." Magan is a graduate of Nicholas County High School and the daughter of Debby Williams of Carlisle, Kentucky.

Bicentennial Committee looking for volunteers

Nicholas County's official bicentennial is set for December 18. The Nicholas County Bicentennial Committee is looking for members of the community who would like to help the committee prepare for the events that are scheduled. Lots of decorations, refreshments, and various other positions are open for those with a few minutes on their busy schedule. Continued on Pg 2

City receives grant for brush chipper

The City of Carlisle has received a state grant commitment of almost $5,000 toward the purchase of a brush chipper. The money comes from the Kentucky Area Development Fund, which was re-authorized by the 1998 Kentucky General Assembly after a six-year lapse. A total of $2,300,000 was appropriated for the 17-county Bluegrass Area Development District.

Pictured left to right are: State Representative Carolyn Becher, State Senator Ed Miller, Mayor Ronnie Clark, and Bluegrass Area Development Associate Director Don Hassall.

Ladobee's Steak House offers a variety of good food and service

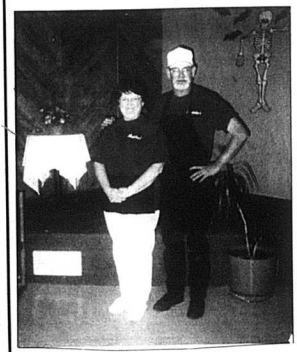

If you are looking for that bit of the outback, you don't have to worry about traveling to Lexington or Cincinnati. just drive a few miles on U.S. 68 and stop in at Ladobee's Steak House. Ladobee's Steak House will provide you with the juiciest steak this side of the country. Ladobee's also offers a wide variety of other mouth watering dishes that are sure to par up to your satisfaction. Ladobee's was opened earlier this fall by Bob and Charlene Barba on U.S. 68, just across from Carnico Golf Club. Bob and Charlene wanted to offer nearby citizens and those traveling through U.S. 68 with great food and great service.

Ladobee's is open Wednesday and Thursday between the hours of 4:00 p.m. and 10:30 p.m. and Friday and Saturday, between 11:00 a.m. and 10:30 p.m. From intimate dinners to family reunions just give Ladobee's a call at 606-289-4800. Reservations are not needed to enjoy an evening of good food.

Employees welcome you

Owners Bob and Charlene Barba

Ladobee's is located on U.S. 68 across from the Carnico Golf Club.