

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

I'm using this means of communication in the hope of reaching more Nicholas Counties regarding our country's Bicentennial Celebration on December 18, 1999.

Several new ideas have arisen for the celebration which need to be approved by our community and its committee. Therefore, there will be a called meeting on Tuesday, November 16, 1999 at 7:00 p.m. at the jail.

In anticipation of really cold weather, we are considering holding all activities inside the courthouse, making it like a mini mall with a real post office, decorated doorways (rather than decorated windows on Main Street), Bicentennial merchandise booths, and the actual ceremony being held in the big courtroom. Refreshments will be served in the little courtroom.

Volunteers are needed. Make necessary signs and work at various stations. Artists are needed to design the post office.

The post office will use the special, Bicentennial drawings of Nicholas County calendars will be available for purchase and mailing for Christmas gifts.

The new historical sketches tea towel will also be for sale, as will the afghan, tie shirts, Christmas ornaments and huggies.

Bicentennial flags are being purchased for Main Street, to be positioned every other one between the American flags which fly on special occasions.

There will be a few extras for purchase and use by homeowners. Let us know if you want one.

As Christmas is so close to our founding date, it was decided not to have several days of celebration in December, but to hold the bigger celebration in commemoration of the Fiscal Court meeting's 200th birthday in June, 2000.

We are asking that all those interested in making this celebration a success, attend this meeting whether you have attended previous ones or not. It is impossible to arrange everything by phone.

Please volunteer your talents and/or time. Sincerely, Joanie Conley 1999 Bicentennial Chairman

Committee Continued from Front Page The December event will be small compared to the June 2000 celebration being planned to commemorate the Fiscal Court.

A meeting is set for Tuesday, November 16, at 7:00 p.m., at the jail.

The committee is asking all those interested in making this celebration a success, attend this meeting whether you have attended previous ones or not.

Kevin Spencer Family concert to be held on Veteran's Day

The Kevin Spencer Family, from Shelby, Ohio will be featured in concert at the Simons Middle School, on West Water St., Flemingsburg, KY, on Thursday, November 11. The concert will begin at 7:30 p.m.

The Kevin Spencer Family are a very talented Southern Gospel Group that organized in June of 1992. Kevin traveled nearly a million miles and made 19 albums with his family, "The Spencers" until 1992, when he began to feel he should spend more time with his wife Tammy and their three children. He feels God opened the doors for him to start his own musical family.

Since Kevin and his family started their ministry, they have been blessed with several big singles that gospel music fans will recognize. Some of these are: "The Blood is Still There," "I Heard About a Stone," "The Spencers," "Barabbas," "If the Alter Could Talk," "The Class of 2000," "I kept on Praying," "When All God's Children Get There," and "The Greatest Story."

The group has been awarded The Singing News "Horizon Group of the Year" and the Gospel Voice "Sunrise Group of the Year," the two highest honors for a new group to receive.

The members of the group are all born-again Christians and believe in living what they sing. Their ministry in song is sure to be a blessing to you.

We would like to use all area churches that have an altar which guest appearances at the concert. These ministries are also heartfelt, spirit filled ministries that will touch your life through song.

The concert is free and there will be a drawing for free southern gospel music items, courtesy of C-103 FM radio, in West Union, Ohio. Concessions will be available.
