IN THE SERVICE

Morris promoted to Marine Chief Warrant Officer

Marine Chief Warrant Officer Thomas E. Morris, son of Cleveland E. and Barbara A. Morris of 211 North Elmarch Avenue, Cynthiana, Kentucky, recently was promoted to his present rank while serving with 2nd Low Altitude Air Defense, 2nd Marine Air Support Wing, Marine Corps Air Station, Cherry Point, North Carolina.

Morris was promoted based on sustained superior job performance and proficiency in his designated specialty.

The 1983 graduate of Pasco High School of Dade City, Florida, joined the Marine Corps in December 1983. Morris is a 1997 graduate of Athens State College, Athens, Alabama, with a BA degree. Morris is also a 1998 graduate of Calhoun Community College, Huntsville, Alabama, with an AS degree.

Healthy Harvest. . . Bus Hovermale and Linda Hovermale, daughter-in-law, proudly show their effort of raising sweet potatoes. The sweet potato weighed five pounds and was ten inches long. There was no fertilizer applied to their garden including the sweet potato.

Bennett reports for duty

Marine Pfc. Michael J. Bennett, sone of John C. and Judy D. Bennett of Route 9, Cynthiana, recently reported for duty at Marine Aviation Training Support Group, Naval Air Station Whidbey Island, Oak Harbor, WA.

The 1998 graduate of Harrison County joined the Marine Corps in August 1998.

Tours available during winter season

The Kentucky Horse Center, a Thoroughbred training facility, located at 3380 Paris Pike, will switch to its off-season hours this week.

From November 1, 1999 through March 31, 2000, the facility will offer one tour per day, Monday through Friday, at 10:30 a.m. Saturdays and other times during the week are available by appointment for groups of at least six people. Reservations are recommended for the regular 10:30 a.m. tour as well.

During the one to one and a half hour tour, visitors to the Kentucky Horse Center can expect to:

- See a morning workout with Thoroughbred horses and exercise riders.
- Watch horses up close at trackside, the paddocks, and barn stalls.
- Chat with a horse owner who will answer questions and talk about his life as a horse trainer.
- Learn how Thoroughbred horses are trained for racing, experience a typical day in the life of a racehorse, and learn how the Thoroughbred came to be so important to Kentucky's history and economy.
- Gain a behind-the-scenes perspective on Thoroughbred training on this working facility-the largest in the United States.

Tours are $10 for adults and $5 for children. Group discounts are available.

The Kentucky Horse Center also has a gift shop complete with equine-themed merchandise including jewelry, Derby t-shirts and sweatshirts and other Derby and Breeders' Cup related items, framed and matted prints, notecards and lots more!

The Kentucky Horse Center is a unique Lexington attraction.

Longs Angus joins membership of American Angus Association

Longs Angus, Carlisle, Kentucky, is a new member of the American Angus Association, reports Dick Spader, executive vice president of the national organization with headquarters in St. Joseph, Missouri.

The American Angus Association, with more than 33,000 active adult and junior members, is the largest beef cattle registry association in the world. It maintains registered records include detailed information on over 13 million registered Angus.

The Association records ancestral information and keeps records of production on individual animals for its members. These permanent records help members select and mate the best animals in their herds to produce high quality, efficient breeding cattle which are then recorded with the American Angus Association. Most of these registered Angus are used by the U.S. farmers and ranchers who raise high quality beef for U.S. consumption.
