

WE SALUTE OUR EDUCATORS

American Education Week

In honor of American Education Week, the businesses featured on this page are pleased to present these inspired words on the subject of education, as well as recognize the contributions of all educators, both in the schools and at home, for their dedication to the pursuit and dissemination of knowledge.

An educated man stands as it were, in the midst of a boundless arsenal and magazine, filled with all the weapons and engines which man's skill has been able to devise from the earliest time.

— Thomas Carlyle (1795-1881)

MC JOHNSON MATHERS HEALTH CARE, INC.

Education should be as gradual as the moonrise, perceptible not in progress but in result.

— George John Whyte-Melville (1821-1878)

The whole art of teaching is only the art of awakening the natural curiosity of young minds for the purpose of satisfying it afterwards.

— Anatole France (1844-1924)

Jockey International

The rung of a ladder was never meant to rest upon, but only to hold a man's foot long enough to enable him to put the other somewhat higher.

— Thomas Henry Huxley (1825-1895)

CARDICO GOLF CLUB

The rung of a ladder was never meant to rest upon, but only to hold a man's foot long enough to enable him to put the other somewhat higher.

— Thomas Henry Huxley (1825-1895)

KU

The very spring and root of honesty and virtue lie in the felicity of lighting on good education.

— Plutarch (A.D. 46-120)

Fleming-Mason RECC

Knowledge is power.

— Francis Bacon (1561-1626)
