Nicholas County Ministerial Association's Pastor's Pen
By: Rev. Steve Smith, Carlsle Christian Church

The story is told of a woman who invited all her friends over for a special dinner. Desiring to impress them, she hired a maid, a butler, and a chef. She quickly chased the best steaks she could find and a top brand of mushrooms to accompany them. When the chef noticed that the mushrooms were 20 cents, he bit disclosed, the lady suggested he buy a few of the dog since the hour was late and there was no time to purchase more mushrooms. "If the dog eats them and doesn't get sick, they're probably all right!" The dog eagerly consumed the mushrooms and showed no signs of ill effects, so the chef completed the meal and served the guests. Later, as dessert was being served, the maid hurried in and whispered to the lady of the house, "Ma'am, the dog is dead! Not waiting to hear any more, she leaped to her feet and told the guests they had no time to leave! They had eaten tainted mushrooms and must rush immediately to the hospital!" Later that evening, after the lady and her guests had returned from having their stomachs pumped, she asked the maid, "Where is the dog now?" "Out in the front yard," she replied. "I've said, 'Where he crawled after the car hit him!' The moral of the story: Be careful before leaping to hasty conclusions which may result in harsh consequences. How many times in the "church (of all places) and in our community have you seen people jump to the wrong conclusions? How many times is a person's work, character, or motive questioned, or even condemned, by drawing a hasty conclusion? Jumping to conclusions is a
