SURPRISE SPEAKER. . . During the Nicholas County Basketball Boosters Banquet held recently Transylvania University basketball Coach Don Lane was the guest speaker. Lane had been the coach for Nicholas County High School basketball coach Bobby Storie.

Saltwell News

By: Mrs. Jean Mattox

The community church services for the week were well attended. Singing and various programs were part of each service with breakfast served after sunrise service at the Rose Hill Church on Sunday.

Layne Hollar and Lois Mitchell entertained her family with Easter dinner and a reunion on Sunday. A large group attended the get together with children hunting for eggs and playing games in the afternoon.

Mr. Bob Kenny of Covington visited with Mrs. Gladys Kenny on Sunday. He also took her to visit with Mr. O.M. Ritchie of Harrison County.

Mr. and Mrs. Gary Hollar enjoyed a family Easter dinner on Sunday at the home of Mr. and mrs. Jerry Galbraith of Pleasant Springs Road.

Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Mattox and children and Mrs. Jean Mattox enjoyed Easter dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rusty Ford of Cynthiana on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Ritchie celebrated their 17th anniversary with dinner at Darryl's Restaurant in Lexington on Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Ritchie and Nikie enjoyed Easter dinner on Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Livingood. Most family members were in attendance.

Mr. John Ellis of Louisville spent Friday through Sunday morning with Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Mattox and enjoyed turkey hunting.

Jeff and Jonathan Doyle attended the Future Farmers of America Banquet held at the Oneida Baptist School where Megan Doyle is very active there and on the school's farm. She won eight awards and also won the Star award (given to only one) and became the secretary for the coming school year. She is now finishing freshman year of high school.

Mrs. Phyllis Brady and many from other county Methodist Women's units enjoyed the "Cluster Meeting" meeting held at Moorefield Methodist Church on Tuesday night with supper first. This was the second of its' kind. Last year we have learned about Henderson Settlement in Red Bird Mission and this year Mr. and Mrs. Ed Shytle from the Methodist Mountain Mission at Jackson were speakers and showed slides when they help build a mission in Honduras.

Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Brady was among a very large crowd attending an Easter Day dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Whitson, Cynthiana and also enjoyed supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Doyle, along with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Green.

Revival will be held at Headquarters Methodist Church beginning on Monday night, May 1 and going through the next Sunday night, May 7 with Rev. Vernon Adams, evangelist, at 7:00 p.m. There will be special singing each night.

Suunyside Homemakers

The Sunnyside Homemakers met on Monday, April 17, 2000 at the home of Ida Mae Willaughby in Paris. Five members answered roll call by telling of a time when we went the extra mile with someone. Announcements were made.

Our annual county meeting and supper will be held April 27th at 6:30 p.m. at the Carlisle Christian Church. Sunnyside's job is giving the devotional and invocation and also registration. Our international buffet is May 8 at 6:30 p.m. the country to be studied is Saudi Arabia. Our job is to set up tables. Each club is to pay for three geraniums for the annual meeting for decoration and door prizes.

Ida Mae gave the devotional reading from Luke 16 and had prayer. Louise Carbert read "Forever Friends". Eleanor Bramel read about the hands of Jesus. It was decided to go back to having our meetings on tuesday. Eleanor read the minutes of the last meeting and Phyllis Brady read her report.

Overly, Bourbon County agent. There was much discussion on the lesson and many thoughts, ideas, illustrations and experiences of our own. There is much power in love and grace needs to start with each of us.

Lavina showed us a big market basket etc., she'd made. Ida Mae showed pillow tops she'd made. Louise Carbert still has her flea market at Georgetown.

Phyllis Brady had a give yourself point game. The prize won by Eleanor Bramel.

The next meeting will be May 16 at the home of Lavina McFarland. The meal was planned. Each sure enjoyed the day.

grace was sung before our delicious meal. Phyllis Brady then gave the lesson on "Peacemaking." The Art of Reducing Violence and Scattering Kindness." She had much good literature from when the lesson was taken in March, taught by Betty

Salome's Stars

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Someone will try to pull the wool over your eyes. Trust your innate sense of what's right and what's wrong to avoid getting fleeced.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Love dominates the Taurus landscape this week. But someone from the past doesn't feel so kindly toward the divine Bovine. Resist the attempt to be goaded into a fight.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) A perplexing situation on the job that you thought was resolved reopens with a new twist. But this time you'll have more people willing to help you deal with it.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) A major move could be good for your career, but you worry that it might cause problems for your loved ones. Before making a decision, talk things over with them.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) The Big Kitty's glitter dazzles the right people and they react to your charm. But they'll want more proof that you can do the job they're offering.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) Continue to assess both sides of a workplace situation before deciding which to support. An old friend brings potentially life-changing news. Listen well.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) Your natural inclination for fairness might conflict with the special needs of a friend. Weigh both issues carefully, and make your decision in your usual honest way.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) A misunderstanding causes a rift in a once-close relationship. Make a move toward sealing the breach before it grows too wide to ever be repaired.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) You can keep secrets like no one else can keep secrets. But an unexpected development may force you to consider revealing one of them.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) Someone tries once again to goad the Goat into a confrontation — resist. Remember that you've nothing to gain by being the butt of someone else's ambitions.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) An opportunity that recently opened up needs to be fully explored to make sure no unsettling surprises will emerge later on. Ask questions and demand answers.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) An old friend confides a secret from the past that can lead to changes in relationships with family and friends. Expect a surprising reaction from a surprising source.

YOU WERE BORN THIS WEEK: You have a reservoir of self-confidence that you can draw on forever. Your energy output makes you seem like a living example of perpetual motion.
